FIRST EMPLOYEE

John P. Higgins, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, joined the Devil Rays organization as its first employee on April 1, 1995.

Vincent J. Naimoli

Managing General Partner and Chief Executive Officer

Officials from Tampa's Metropolitan Ministries Shelter were surprised one morning last December when Vince Naimoli, the managing general partner of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, suddenly appeared delivering hundreds of gifts for their toy drive. There were no cameras, reporters or press agents. Just Vince Naimoli.

This past off-season, the Rays brought on board a consultant to enhance the team's efforts to better serve its customers. Present at a number of meetings was a familiar face: Vince Naimoli. The team's consultant, Dr. Tom McQueen, himself a Rays season ticket holder, was amazed. "Most of the CEOs of the companies we work with aren't around for the training sessions," he said admiringly.

Vince Naimoli is not like most CEOs or sports team owners. Whether he is greeting fans at the gates at Tropicana Field, soliciting ideas from Rays backers at the club's annual Fan Fest, sitting in his seats behind first base at a game, joining in on a stop at the Rays off-season caravan, or greeting fans while riding on the Devil Rays float in the Gasparilla or Outback Bowl parades, Vince Naimoli's passion for the Devil Rays and the game of baseball is real. Very real.

Naimoli, a Tampa resident for the past 24 years and the team's managing general partner and chief executive officer since the team's inception on March 9, 1995, continues to work as hard as anyone in the organization to make the Devil Rays a championship team.

The area's quest for a Major League Baseball team is by now a well-chronicled, 20-year success story borne of the diligence and determination of a long line of dedicated community leaders. In 1991, Naimoli accepted the challenge to bring the National Pastime to Tampa Bay and thereby make the region truly Major League in every sense. From the outset, Naimoli simply refused to accept failure and four years later, on March 9, 1995, Tampa Bay finally got its team and the estimated $200 million it brings annually to the local economy.

For Naimoli, the work was only beginning. Long before the Major League Rays took the field in 1998, his commitment to building a successful organization was evident. It began when Naimoli saw to it that the Rays, two years before playing their first game, signed Baseball America's top-ranked lefthanded and righthanded high school pitchers from the 1996 free agent draft in Bobby Seay and Matt White, now two promising Rays' prospects and members of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team. Next, Naimoli and the Rays ownership group made a considerable financial investment for improvements to be made to Tropicana Field prior to the 1998 inaugural season. He insisted that Tropicana Field's design reflect the game's traditional ways and as a result, it has, among other distinctive features, asymmetrical outfield dimensions, seats close to the action and the first synthetic turf field in more than 20 years to incorporate dirt base paths.

As the stadium improvements began, he engineered a naming rights contract with Tropicana Products that will enable the City of St. Petersburg to receive payments of more than $13 million over the life of the contract. Naimoli also saw to it that major improvements were made at the team's expense at its spring training complex and spring training ballpark, Florida Power Park, Home of Al Lang Field.

Last spring, Naimoli again put the Rays on the cutting edge when he purchased FieldTurf for the playing surface at Tropicana Field making it the first professional baseball stadium to feature this state of the art synthetic turf. It has been met with unanimous approval of the league, players, fans and media.

As a result of his vision and planning, Tropicana Field features two cigar bars, a cyber café, a billiard room, a centerfield restaurant offering the best view of any major league stadium, a Brew Pub and Southwest Airlines Freedom FanFare seats (actual airline seats) in the left and right field bleachers.

In typical fashion, Naimoli, a University of Notre Dame graduate, has emerged as a leader in tackling and trying to resolve tough issues important to the overall welfare of the game. In addition to serving on several MLB committees, he was named in January 1999 to the Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics. Fellow committee members include executives from several teams and Senator George Mitchell, former Senate Majority Leader; Paul A. Volcker, former Chairman of the Board of the Federal Reserve System; Richard C. Levin, President of Yale University; and syndicated columnist George Will. The task force has been analyzed all aspects of baseball's economic system and has made recommendations that address the economic issues and problems that exist in the game.

In 1999, Naimoli was recognized for his efforts when he was named one of the recipients of the prestigious 1999 Ellis Island Medal of Honor from the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations. Also among those receiving the award for 1999 were First Lady Hillary Clinton, Senator John Glenn and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court William Rehnquist. Also in 1999, he received the Outstanding Leaders Award from Northwood University in West Palm Beach, Florida.

A firm believer in "giving back to the community," Naimoli has been involved in countless charitable projects throughout the Tampa Bay area. He has served as chairman or honorary chairman of numerous charitable fundraisers. Naimoli received the first "Bridging the Bay" Award in 1996 in recognition of his efforts to unite the citizens of Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. He has received similar community service awards from the Urban League, the Jewish National Fund, the Tampa Sports Club, St. Petersburg Junior College, Boys and Girls Clubs, the Multiple Sclerosis Society, the City of St. Petersburg, the City of Tampa, and various chambers of commerce. He has also been a tireless volunteer for the Outback Bowl.

Naimoli, who is Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Anchor Industries International, was named "1995 Florida Entrepreneur of the Year" in the "turnaround" category.

Creditors appointed Naimoli director of Harvard Industries in September 1992, one month after the company emerged from bankruptcy reorganization. A year later, the company attained almost $7 million in earnings, up from a loss of $131 million a year earlier. Doehler-Jarvis Inc, North America's largest independent manufacturer of aluminum castings, was preparing to file for bankruptcy in November 1991 when Naimoli assumed control. In 1992, the company lost $29 million; in 1993 it had profits of $10 million. Also notable were the turnarounds he led in the 1980's as Chief Executive Officer at Anchor Glass Container Corporation, Ladish Company, a Wisconsin aerospace parts company, Electrolux Corporation and Regina Company and as a director of National Gypsum Company and Resorts International.

Naimoli was born and raised in Paterson, New Jersey, one of four children in a working class family. His father, the son of Italian immigrants, was employed by the New York City subway system and later taught himself to become a Stationary Engineer. A Brooklyn Dodgers fan as a youngster, one of his early baseball memories is a painful one: listening to his portable radio while on his newspaper route when Bobby Thomson's hit his home run for the New York Giants to beat the rival Dodgers for the 1951 National League pennant.

After graduating from Paterson Central High School, he attended Notre Dame on a Navy ROTC scholarship (he took the Marine Corps option) graduating in 1959 as a member of the Engineering Honor Society (TAU BETA PI). He took night classes at the New Jersey Institute of Technology earning his M.S. in mechanical engineering in 1962. Two years later, he received his M.B.A. from Fairleigh-Dickinson University (Magna Cum Laude) also through night classes, and in 1974 he completed Harvard Business School's Graduate Advance Management Program. He is a registered professional engineer in five states.

He is immediate Past Chairman of the University of Tampa's Board of Trustees and Lead Gifts Chairman for the school's first ever $80 million capital campaign. He is presently Director of JLM Industries and has served in 19 other organizations as a director in the past. Naimoli received the Notre Dame College of Engineering Distinguished Service Award in 1987. He was also Chairman of the Notre Dame College of Business Advisory Council from 1992 to 1994 and is currently a member of the Notre Dame President's Development Council and its Sub-Committee on Athletes. Naimoli also serves on Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity, Legislative Affairs, International Umpire Development and Revenue Sharing Committee.

An avid fan of all Fighting Irish athletic teams, Naimoli frequently attends Notre Dame football games with his wife, Lenda, who retired as an Eastern Airlines flight attendant after 24 years of service and who has an identical twin, Mrs. J.E. (Glenda) Young. He is the father of four daughters: Christine, an Arizona State graduate; Tory Ann Jarvis, a Stephens College and Kellogg Graduate School alumnus; Alyson, a Notre Dame graduate, Lindsey who will be a college freshman in the Fall, and two grandchildren, Jack Burke and Matthew Vincent.

YOUTHFUL RAYS

The Rays feature one of baseball's youngest 40-man rosters. No less than 18 of the Rays begin the 2001 season under the age of 25, most in the majors.

Chuck LaMar

Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager

Now in his sixth season as the Rays' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager, Chuck LaMar is facing perhaps the most important season in the history of the young organization.

"We're back to building this franchise," says LaMar. "In 2000, we got a little off course from our original plan to build the organization through scouting and player development. We tried to speed up our timetable and create a more exciting atmosphere for our fans, but the injuries crippled us. There's nothing we can do about that, but since then we have made some trades that have brought in some good, young talent."

ESPN's Baseball Analyst Peter Gammons says despite the slight deviation, the plan has worked. "When the Devil Rays first started," wrote Gammons this off-season," they made the promise that they would be a pure talent organization. They didn't make any promises about being an overnight success. Now the organization is loaded. From scouting to development, the organization is in place and there are great young players on the horizon."

Among the recent moves LaMar has made was a deal that many considered the best trade of the recent off-season when he acquired 1998 American League Rookie of the Year Tom Grieve from the Oakland A's in January.

A quick check of LaMar's background and it becomes quite evident why the Rays are only the fifth expansion team to improve its winning percentage in each of its first three years. Throughout his career, which began as a scouting supervisor for the Cincinnati Reds in 1985, LaMar has always placed heavy emphasis on scouting and player development.

As the latest testaments to his scouting acumen, LaMar was named to the selection committee for the 2000 United States Olympic Gold-Medal-winning team and to the advisory committee for the 2000 Major League Futures All-Star Game. The previous year he was named to the Pan Am Games Selection Committee.

LaMar has assembled an experienced and respected baseball operations staff and has led them through five amateur drafts in addition to the expansion draft.

The Rays' minor league system contains heralded prospects such as Josh Hamilton, the USA Today 2000 Minor League Player of the Year; righthanded pitcher Jesus Colome, whose fastball has been clocked at 100 miles per hour; U.S. Olympic team members Brent Abernathy, Bobby Seay and Matt White; Mets' 1998 first round draft pick Jason Tyner; 2000 first round pick Rocco Baldelli, the sixth player selected in the draft; right-handed pitcher Jason Standridge, the Rays' highly regarded first round pick in 1997, and outfielder Carl Crawford ranked by Baseball America as the 2nd best 18-year-old prospect in all of pro baseball.

On another front, it was LaMar who arranged for the Devil Rays to hold their major league spring training camp in their home city, a bold, unprecedented step in modern day baseball. It was his research and thoughtful insight that led to the all-dirt basepaths at Tropicana Field, the first indoor stadium in more than 25 years with that feature. And last spring, it was LaMar and Rays' Managing General Partner Vince Naimoli who saw to it that Tropicana Field was the first pro stadium to have FieldTurf, the latest cutting edge synthetic playing surface.

Under LaMar's leadership, the Devil Rays have made significant strides in the international arena, establishing a baseball academy in the Dominican Republic and signing a working agreement with the Mexico City Tigers in the Mexican League. In 2000, due in part to LaMar's efforts on the international front, the Rays played in the first major league game in Venezuela in nearly 30 years and this year will play games in Mexico City.

Chuck has also provided leadership for the organization "off the field." The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament held for the past three years in St. Petersburg has raised more than $500,000 for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation. LaMar has been involved in a number of other local charities including the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Clearwater for Youth and the Suncoast Children's Dream Fund.

LaMar came to the Devil Rays from the Atlanta Braves where he had been Assistant General Manager for Player Personnel under Braves General Manager John Schuerholz.

LaMar joined the Braves organization as the club's Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1990. In 1993, he was promoted to assistant general manager for player personnel, in which capacity he oversaw the Scouting and Player Development Departments and was involved with all major league personnel matters.

With the Braves, LaMar helped form and implement baseball's first minority intern program in the areas of scouting and player development. In 1996, he established a similar program with the Devil Rays - the Career Initiative Program – which promotes diversity by exposing members of minority groups to the player development, scouting and conditioning aspects of baseball. This past November, he received the Tampa Bay YWCA's 2000 Humanitarian Award for establishing the Rays' CIP.

During LaMar's tenure, the Braves were honored by Baseball America in 1993 as the organization with the best minor league alignment, by The Sporting News and USA Today in 1992 as the Minor League Organization of the Year and by Baseball America in 1991 as Minor League Organization of the Year. In 1996, thanks in part to many of the players signed under LaMar's leadership, the Braves were chosen Baseball America's Organization of the Year. The Braves were National League Western Division Champions in 1991, 1992, 1993, and 1995. They were N.L. Champions in 1991 and 1992, and World Champions in 1995.

Prior to joining the Braves, LaMar had served as the Pirates Director of Minor League Operations for the 1989 and 1990 seasons. In that capacity he was responsible for all aspects of the Pirates minor league system and proved instrumental in helping to build the Pirates club which won three National League Eastern Division titles beginning in 1990. He also was responsible for signing one of Major League Baseball's first working agreements between a Major League club and Australian team.

LaMar started his major league career in 1985 as a scouting supervisor with the Cincinnati Reds helping build a team that won the World Championship in 1990. During his four years as scouting supervisor, LaMar signed 10 players who made the Reds' 40-man roster, seven of whom eventually played in the major leagues. He was also responsible for signing one of Major League Baseball's first working agreements with a Mexican League team.

In 1978, LaMar graduated from Texas Christian University with a B.S. Degree in Physical Education. While at TCU he captained the Horned Frogs baseball team and led TCU in Southwest Conference hitting in 1977. After graduating, he went on to teach and coach baseball at St. Thomas High School in Houston, Texas, for two years. He then advanced to the collegiate baseball ranks as an assistant coach at Indiana University in 1980-83 and head coach at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, an NAIA school in Belton, Texas, in 1983-85.

LaMar, who was born Twin Falls, Idaho, and raised in Houston, Texas, was a three-sport lettermen and captained all three sports at Houston's Madison High School.

Baseball runs in his family. Three members of his family –his grandfather Charles Hart LaMar; his father, Charles William LaMar; and his younger brother, Danny, a first round draft choice of the Cincinnati Reds in 1979 – all played minor league baseball.

Chuck and his wife, Cheryl, have three children: Sarah (18), Emily (16) and Charlie (8). They reside in Clearwater, Fla. and are members of the First United Methodist Church of Clearwater.

RAYS FIGHT PEDIATRIC CANCER

Through Fred McGriff's annual golf tournament, the Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Fishing tournament and the Caring for Kids With Cancer program, the Rays and their sponsors (Transworld Diversified Services and Lucent Technologies) raised approximately $500,000 for the Pediatric Cancer Foundation in 2000.

Director of Major League Administration

Sandy Dengler is entering her 25th season in professional baseball, her third with the Devil Rays. She joined the organization in December 1998 as Assistant to the General Manager and was recently promoted to Director of Major League Administration where she assists the General Manager and Assistant General Managers in the day-to-day functioning of the Baseball Operations Department. Among her many duties is negotiating contracts with Major League players with 0-3 years of Major League service.

Tony Saunders

Assistant to
Player Development and Scouting

Former Devil Rays pitcher Tony Saunders joined the team's front office as Assistant to Player Development and Scouting on October 31, 2000.

Saunders, 27, pitched for the Devil Rays in 1998 and 1999 after beginning his major league career with the Florida Marlins. The Rays selected him with the first pick in the 1997 Expansion Draft.

On May 26, 1999, the left-handed Saunders broke the humerus bone in his pitching arm while throwing a pitch for the Rays against the Texas Rangers at Tropicana Field. Following an extensive physical therapy and rehabilitation program, Saunders made a valiant comeback attempt last season. After making four previous rehab assignments, Saunders' courageous effort ended August 24, 2000 when the 26-year-old suffered a fracture of the same bone while pitching for the Class A Florida State League St. Petersburg Devil Rays.

In 62 major league games, 61 starts, Saunders posted a 13-24 record and a 4.56 ERA (345.2-IP, 343-H, 175-ER, 204-BB, 304-SO). He also pitched in the 1997 World Series for the World Champion Marlins. He led the Rays in strikeouts in 1998 with a club record 172 and on April 22, 1999 came within four outs of a no-hitter against the Baltimore Orioles.

In September, the Rays established the Tony Saunders Courage Award which will be given annually to a local amateur arthlete who best exemplifies Tony's courage, character, competetive desire and fighting spirit. The winner will receive a $2,500 scholarship from the Rays of Hope Foundation, the charitable foundation of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

Tony, along with pitcher Kent Mercher, were co-recipients of the 2000 Tony Conigliaro Award. The national award was instituted by the Boston Red Sox to honor the memory of their former star outfielder and is presented to a major league player who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage that were trademarks of Tony C. The award is presented annually at the Boston Baseball Writers dinner in January.

Saunders lives in Tampa, Fla. with his wife Joyce, daughter Samantha (4), and son Anthony (1).

TONY SAUNDERS COURAGE AWARD

The Tony Saunders Courage Award, created last fall, will be given annually to a local student/athlete who best exemplifies the courage, character, competitive desire and fighting spirit of the former Rays pitcher.

Student/athletes who have either demonstrated extraordinary effort or excelled in their sport while overcoming any form of adversity merit consideration.

The winner will receive a $2,500 scholarship from the Rays of Hope Foundation, the charitable foundation of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. The award will be presented to the winner by Tony Saunders before a Devil Rays home game in 2001.

Saunders, who was named the Rays Assistant to Scouting and Player Development on October 31, 2000, is a veteran of three major league seasons. He broke the humerus bone in his pitching arm on May 26, 1999 while throwing a pitch for the Rays against the Texas Rangers at Tropicana Field. He made a valiant comeback attempt in 2000, but his courageous effort ended August 24 when the 26-year-old suffered a fracture of the same bone while pitching on a rehabilitation assignment for the Class A Florida State League St. Petersburg Devil Rays.

RAYS CARE

In 2001, the Devil Rays provided in-kind donations to nearly 400 Tampa Bay area charities and were responsible for raising $1.2 million for needy causes in the area.

The Rays provided free guest speakers for more than 200 community events and the organization swung open the doors at Tropicana Field for charity events benefiting Abilities, Hillsborough County's TIVY Math competition, Pediatric Cancer Foundation, St. Vincent DePaul Charities, the Pinellas County Education Foundation, the American Heart Association, Suncoast Children's Dream Fund, Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Tampa Bay, Academy Prep in St. Petersburg, a special Negro League Reunion Game and RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).

Volume Services America once again saw to it that local charities were given the opportunity to raise money at Devil Rays home games by manning the concession stands, a program that has brought nearly $3 million to Tampa Bay area charitable organizations.

Raymond, the Rays' furry blue mascot, made some 188 appearances in the community including nearly 100 elementary and middle schools. During Raymond's visits, students join Raymond's DREAM TEAM and pledged to support a drug-free environment. Approximately 65,000 area children have participated.

It was a busy year. And yet, in 2001, the Rays will take their commitment to the community a step further with the development of the Rays of Hope Foundation. In February, the club named Dick Crippen as executive director and named four primary charities with which it will work this year: the St. Petersburg YMCA, the Pinellas County Education Foundation, the Hillsborough County Education Foundation and the Children's Home Society.

The mission statement of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays Foundation is to assist the agencies and or charitable causes dedicated to the education and welfare of the citizens of the Tampa Bay Area with a particular emphasis on children.

In November of 1999, the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and the School Board of Pinellas County entered into a long-term unique partnership that promotes student achievement and honors those in the education profession.

Among the highlights of the agreement: the establishment in January of the Devil Rays and Pinellas County Schools Teacher Hall of Fame; Devil Rays players featured in 30-60 second promotional videos highlighting a variety of academic skills; the Devil Rays sponsoring essay contests and student art contests; Pinellas County high school students will televise a Devil Rays home game in 2001, as they did in 1999, and the school system will also host a monthly cable show produced directed and filmed by students.

The Rays "Shirts Off Our Back" promotion in which fans buy chances to win the game-worn uniforms tops of each player, has brought the Muscular Dystrophy Association more than $57,000 the past three seasons. The Rays organization has gladly donated the uniforms for such a cause and will do so again in 2001 at "Shirts Off Our Back" Day on September 30.

In 2000, the Devil Rays Wives presented a check for $66,400 to the ALS Association (Lou Gehrig's disease), the proceeds from their celebrity dinner where Devil Rays players served as waiters on July 18. The Wives also engineered a food drive that generated 5,237 pounds of food for Metropolitan Ministries and a baby goods drive that benefitted Tampa's Alpha House.

Through Fred McGriff's annual golf tournament, the Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam

Fishing tournament and the Caring for Kids With Cancer program, the Rays and their sponsors (Transworld Diversified Services and Lucent Technologies) raised approximately $500,000 for the Pediatric Cancer Foundation in 2000. Both McGriff and LaMar are actively involved with the pediatric cancer patients at Tampa's St. Joseph's Hospital. LaMar is also involved in other local charities including the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay and Clearwater for Youth. Last November, he received the Tampa Bay YWCA's 2000 Humanitarian Award.

The Rays will also once again offer internships through the Boys and Girls Clubs. In 2000, three essay contest winners served internships with the Rays public relations department. In addition to receiving a stipend from the club, the interns performed game-day assignments for the Rays public relations office. The youngsters had the opportunity to develop business skills in an office setting and interact with the general public as well as receive an up-close look at the inner workings of a major league baseball team.

Greg Vaughn hosted an evening of Jazz with Tampa Bay Buccaneer quarterback Shaun King in March to benefit the St. Petersburg Boys and Girls Clubs. For the third consecutive year, the Rays brought more than a dozen players to Winter Haven in March for a fundraiser for All Saints Academy. The team's season-opening gala in 2000 helped raise money for Academy Prep, a private school in St. Petersburg that provides a structural, college-prep environment at no charge to children from low-income families

Before he was dealt to the Kansas City Royals, Rays reliever Roberto Hernandez also became involved in Academy Prep. In 2000, Hernandez spoke to students about the importance of staying in school, appeared at school functions, donated memorabilia for charity auctions, provided tickets for the students to Devil Rays games, and purchased baseball equipment, from cleats to gloves, for the school's team. Last October, he donated $150,000 to the school's endowment fund.

In 2000, Rays pitcher Wilson Alvarez founded the Wilson Alvarez Foundation (FUNDAWA) and since then has given time and money to needy causes in their native Venezuela. Wilson and his wife, Daihanna, have done everything from delivering Christmas gifts door-to-door, to paying for children's life-saving operations. They contributed thousand of gallons of water, food, and clothing to the flood victims in Venezuela during the tragedy that occurred there last year. Fellow Venezuelan Ozzie Guillen' and his Foundation has also been every active in his homeland.

There were many other community projects in which the Rays were involved in last season. The team hosted its annual Thanksgiving dinner for the nearby shelter residents and Christmas Party for needy kids. The Rays again held their annual breakfast for Little Leaguers in St. Petersburg in conjunction with the Festival of States. The Rays also collected more than 5,000 pounds of food and bottled water for flood victims in Venezuela when the Rays traveled there to play the Atlanta Braves in March. In August the Rays and Southwest Airlines hosted 12 young cancer patients on a day trip to Baltimore to catch the game against the Orioles.

As part of First Union's Salute to the AL on August 12 when the Rays hosted the White Sox, an online auction of memorabilia- including the uniforms worn that game, netted more than $50,000 for the United Way and other charities. The Rays and Cuesta-Rey Cigars hosted their annual for Big Brothers/Big Sisters fundraiser at J.C. Newman's Cuesta-Rey Cigar Bar and a Blimpies/Rays event at Tropicana Field's Hall of Fame Lounge raised more than $10,000 for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa. Kane's Furniture and the Rays teamed up to donate more than $10,000 to All Children's Hospital based on the number of home runs the Rays hit in 2000.

Lykes and the Rays have teamed up for a promotion that has raised $71,000 for the Suncoast Children's Dream Fund over the past two years. Lykes has donated $50 for every Rays RBI. Florida Power, a very active community partner of the Rays, raised nearly $70,000 for Take Stock in Children through its Score One For Education campaign centered around the number of home runs the Rays hit in 2000.

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests — major league waivers, special waivers, outright waivers and unconditional release waivers.

Major league waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for major league assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor leauge club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

Earned Run Average – (ERx9)/IP: Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average – H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage – TB/AB: Total number of bases divided by at-bats (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases).

Fielding Averge – (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage – (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

X-Ray Report

Vinny served as color commentator for Spanish broadcasts during the 1998-99 World Series.

Career

- Had 4 straight 100-RBI seasons from 1996-99; only three third basemen in major league history have had more: Al Rosen (1950-54, Cleveland), Pie Traynor (1927-31, Pittsburgh) and Atlanta's Chipper Jones each have had five...Jones' streak is current.
- His string of five straight 30-homer seasons from 1995-99 are the third-most ever by a third baseman. Only Eddie Mathews (9, 1953-61) and Mike Schmidt (8, 1979-84, 86-87) have had more.
- That five-year span represents arguably the best combination of average and power ever by a third baseman over five years (1995-99). Vinny's five-year stats and the other comparables are below:

Third Basemen Five-Year Comparisons

- From 1995-1999 he averaged 38 home runs, 112 RBI and compiled a .302 batting average. Only three others in the majors reached those numbers during that span: Mo Vaughn, Albert Belle and Juan Gonzalez…he also averaged 150 hits, 20 doubles and 30 home runs - only two others in the majors did it: Albert Belle and Rafael Palmeiro.
- Played in 778 of the Rockies' 792 games (98%) over that five-year span. In the majors, only Albert Belle (786), Rafael Palmeiro (783) and Craig Biggio (785) played in more games during that span. That span also included a club record 307 consecutive games played streak (see below for more details under "1999").
- Is one of seven active players, 16 all-time, to have hit 40+ home runs in three consecutive seasons. He joins fellow actives Mark McGwire, Jay Buhner, Andres Galarraga, Ken Griffey Jr., Juan Gonzalez and Alex Rodriguez. The only other third baseman to do it was Eddie Mathews with Milwaukee, 1953-55.
- Is one of 15 players in major league history to have hit .300 or better with 30 + home runs in four straight years. Only four active players have done it: Mike Piazza (1995-00), Mo Vaughn (1995-98), Andres Galarraga (1995-98) and Frank Thomas (1993-97).
- Is one of six players in major league history to hit .300 or better with 40+ home runs in three straight years. The others: Babe Ruth (1926-32), Jimmie Foxx (1932-34), Ted Kluszewski (1953-55), Duke Snider (1953-55) and Andres Galarraga (1996-98).
- Is the all-time home run leader among Mexican-born players.
- Is the Rockies' all-time home run leader (203).

2000 Season

- Appeared in just 85 games after playing in 98% of the Colorado Rockies' games (778/792) from 1995-99.
- Endured 3 separate stints on the DL in 2000, the first shelvings of his career: missed the first 7 games of the season with a strained left oblique muscle (went on April 1 retroactive to March 25 and was reinstated April 11)...was also DL'd June 14-July 2 and Aug 1-Sep 3 with lower back inflammation...missed a total of 63 games to the DL...in addition, he missed 5 games after he was hit on the right wrist by a pitch from TOR John Frascatore on July 20...had just 88 AB after the All-Star break (25 games).
- Hit .221 with 6 HR and 42 RBI after averaging 38 home runs, 112 RBI and a .302 batting average over the previous 5 seasons.
- Opened the season with one HR in his first 15 games, then hit 4 in an 8-game stretch from April 28 to May 7...hit just one more homer the rest of the season (May 27 vs. SEA off Brett Tomko) covering 241 AB.
- Finished the season homerless in his last 166 AB (42 games) - the longest HR drought of his career - previous was 109 AB from June 27, 1994 to May 8, 1995.
- Hit .395 (15/38) against Cleveland and Baltimore and .198 (58/293) vs. everyone else.. Had season-high 3 hits Sep 7 @ CLE and a season-high 3 RBI May 30 vs. BAL.
- Average was not above .233 after May 12 and reached a season-low .200 on May 25.
- Best season stretch was a season-high 7-game hitting streak May 26-June 1 in which he hit .357 (10/28) with 8 RBI.
- On June 9 vs. Florida he recorded his first triple since July 3, 1999 vs. San Diego.
- Was acquired by the Rays on Dec. 13, 1999 as part of the first 4-team trade in 14 years.
- Returned to play winter ball after a one-year absence…batted .360 (27/75) for Hermosillo with 7 HR and 21 RBI in 20 games…Also hit a pair of home runs for Mexico in the Caribbean World Series.

FOUR-TEAM TRADE

The move that brought Vinny Castilla from the Rockies to the Devil Rays on December 13, 1999 was part of a nine-player, four-team trade that also involved the Brewers and Athletics. It went this way. The Rays traded P Rolando Arrojo and INF Aaron Ledesma to the Rockies for Castilla. The Rockies also traded P Jamey Wright and C Henry Blanco to the Brewers for 3B Jeff Cirillo and LHP Scott Karl. Finally, the Rockies sent P Justin Miller to the Athletics, who in turn sent P Jimmy Haynes to the Brewers to complete the deal.

It was the first four-team trade since January 18, 1985 when the Rangers, Royals, Mets and Brewers pulled off a deal. The principal players in that six-player trade were C Jim Sundberg (who went from Milwaukee to KC), C Don Slaught (who went from KC to Texas), P Danny Darwin (who went from Texas to Milwaukee) and P Tim Leary (who went from the Mets to KC).

- Although his average slipped below .300 for the first time since 1993, he topped 30 homers for the fifth straight year, and eclipsed 100 RBI for the fourth straight season.
- His 75 strikeouts were the fewest he's had since 1993.
- Helped the Colorado Rockies set National League records for most extra base hits and total bases in a season eclipsing records that had stood since 1930.
- Castilla, Dante Bichette, Larry Walker and Todd Helton combined to make the Rockies only the 4th team in major league history to feature four players with 30 home runs and 100 RBI.
- Was 8th in the National League with 615 at bats.
- On June 15 his 307 consecutive games played streak came to end when he got the day off...It was the first time he missed a game since June 25, 1997...It was then the longest active streak in the majors...It also snapped his major league leading 222 consecutive starts.
- Had 3 multi-homer games extending his club career record to 23.
- Average was at a season-low .263 on July 26 before he went on a 37-for-98 (.376) tear to hike his average to .287 on Aug 21...Rest of the way, however, he batted only .233 (32-137)...Had a 10-game hitting streak, August 9-17 (18-for-40, .450)...During that streak, Castilla strung together seven consecutive multi-hit games, the second-longest such streak in club history.
- Rockies opened the season in Monterrey, Mexico April 4 vs. San Diego...Castilla, one of the country's most popular athletes, didn't disappoint the fans, going 4-for-5 with a double.
- On April 30 at Pittsburgh, hit a 2-0 pitch off Pete Schourek to become the franchise's all-time home run leader (173), surpassing Andres Galarraga; two trips later, he homered again.
- On May 12 vs. New York, hit his 100th career home run at Coors Field, becoming the first in park history to reach that milestone
- Entered June with only seven homers and 19 RBI, but had the most powerful game of his career in a 12-11 win vs. Milwaukee, June 5, when he went 4-for-5, and established career-highs and tied club records with three homers and 13 total bases.
- On June 7 vs. Seattle, skipper Jim Leyland employed a four-outfielder defense in the ninth against Ken Griffey, Jr., the first Griffey had seen in 1999; Castilla played (far) left field and pitcher Jerry Dipoto struck out Griffey swinging.
- On August 13, his first-inning single off Javier Vazquez marked his 1,000th career hit...Two days later, he posted his 1,000th hit in a Rockies uniform...On August 28 in Game 1 vs. Philadelphia, he ended another extraordinary streak; he went hitless against the Phillies, snapping a 19-game hitting streak against them, dating back to May 11, 1997...It is believed to be one of the longest player-opponent streaks in NL history.
- On September 14 vs. New York, hit his 200th career homer, a third-inning blast off Octavio Dotel; it also marked his 30th of the season, and 200th in a Colorado uniform.

- His 144 RBI were more than any third baseman in National League history, and second only to Cleveland's Al Rosen, who drove in one better in 1953.
- His 46 homers have been bettered by only two third basemen in major league history: Mike Schmidt (48 in 1980) and Eddie Mathews (47 in 1953. He also hit 46 in 1959).
- Castilla's 46 homers were the third most in franchise annals, trailing Walker's 49 in 1997 and Galarraga's 47 in 1996.
- The only Rockie to start every game during any single season, he set career highs in average (.319), runs (108), homers (46), RBI (144), multi-hit games (61), hits (206), total bases (380), slugging percentage (.589), and extra-base hits (78).
- The only NL player to start each of his club's games in 1998.
- Among NL leaders, finished fourth in homers, third in RBI (behind only McGwire and Sosa), fourth in multi-hit games, third in hits, third in total bases, tied for seventh in slugging percentage and seventh in extra-base hits.
- His career-high hit total (206) remains the fifth highest in Colorado history, behind only Bichette (219, 1998), Helton (216, 2000), Burks (211, 1996) and Walker (208, 1997).

- In the first game of the season, at Arizona March 31, he belted two homers to lead the Rockies' to a 9-2 win, the first of six multi-homer games for Vinny in 1998.
- Homered on Apr 16 vs. Los Angeles, the 130th homer of his career, tying him with Jorge Orta - the all-time career HR leader among Mexican born players.
- Put together the first of two season-high 14-game hitting streaks, April 5-19, and in the final six games of the streak he knocked in 14 runs..
- On May 14 vs. Chicago, Vinny equaled his career high with five hits, including a double, homer and three RBI.
- Homered in four consecutive games May 31-June 3, going 7-for-15 with 10 RBI during the stretch (vs. Houston and Arizona).
- Earned an All-Star invitation and was a member of the NL team in the home run contest on Monday, then went 0-for-2 in the game at Coors Field Tuesday
- Enjoyed a career best month in July, hitting .381 with 12 homers and 25 RBI in the Rockies' 25 games; the 12 homers tied the club record for a month.
- Had a pair of six-RBI games to tie his career high during that stretch...On September 4 vs. San Diego, he was 3-for-5 with six RBI and two homers, his 40th and 41st on the year to establish a single-season career high...Then went 3-for-6 with a homer and six RBI vs. the Marlins September 8.
- On Sep 27, hit his 46th home run, a two-run, seventh-inning shot off the Giants' Julian Tavarez giving the Rockies a 9-8 win and capping a seven-run comeback.
- Batted .361 (65-for-180) with men in scoring position, the seventh-best mark in the NL.
- Earned his second consecutive, and third overall, Louisville Silver Slugger Award, the most ever by a Rockies player.
- Toured Japan with other major-league All-Stars in a friendship series after the '98 season.

1997

- Amazingly in '97, he duplicated his .304 average, 40 homers and 113 RBI from 1996.
- In April he hit .360 (32-for -89) with nine homers and 25 RBI in 24 games...Castilla earned NL Player of the Week honors, April 7-13, after hitting .438 (7-for-16) with a pair of homers, two doubles and seven RBI.
- By July 16 his average had dipped to .271 but from that point on, he batted .350 (89-for-254), hitting safely in 56 of his final 66 games.
- A career-best 22-game hitting streak, August 9 - September 1, fell one game short of the club record...Was 32-for-83 (.385) during the 22 games, with eight homers and 16 RBI, bumped his average from .294 to .308.
- Started 155 games at third base...Began 41 double plays to top all NL third basemen for the second consecutive season.

- Castilla's 40th homer in his last at bat of the year gave the Rockies just the second threesome (Andres Galarraga and Ellis Burks) in major-league history to hit at least 40 home runs. The first was the 1973 Atlanta Braves (Davey Johnson, Hank Aaron and Darrell Evans). The 1997 Rockies subsequently became the third and most recent team with three 40-homer guys (Larry Walker, Galarraga and Castilla).
- Hit the Rockies' only two grand slams in '96, the only two of his career: Apr 6 at Montreal off Kirk Rueter and July 12 vs. San Diego off Willie Blair....The latter gave the Rockies the lead in an 11-run inning enroute to a 13-12 victory.
- On three occasions he homered in three consecutive games...Was the NL Player-of-the-Week, June 10-16, hitting .346 (9-for-26), with seven runs, four homers and eight RBI...Had four multiple-homer games during the year.

1995, Position Switch

- After two seasons of platoon duty at shortstop and second base, he made his third position switch in as many years and made the All-Star team as a third baseman...Started the Midsummer Classic, picked by NL

manager Felipe Alou to replace a sidelined Matt Williams...Originally a shortstop when signed by the Braves, Vinny went to the Arizona Instructional League during the 1994 players' strike to get work at third base, then earned an All-Star spot at that position in 1995 with the Rockies.

- Led the club with six multi-homer games, and was the first Rockie in history to homer twice in back-to-back games, turning the trick July 7-8 vs. Montreal.
- Was NL Player-of-the-Week from May 8-14, batting .609 (14-for-23) with four homers and 14 RBI; on May 12 he turned in a four-hit, two-homer, six-RBI game at Florida.
- In Game 1 of the first NLDS vs. Atlanta, his fourth-inning, two-run homer snapped a 1-1 tie, though the Braves came back to win. He hit another two-run homer at Atlanta in Game 3, again breaking a tie, and then drove in an insurance run in the 10th inning of the Rockies' only postseason win.

- Made nine appearances for the Rockies before his AAA option; then, June 4, he returned to the majors, where he has remained since.
- Started at least two games at each infield position...Made his first ever appearance at first base July 29 at San Francisco, the game after Andres Galarraga suffered a broken hand.

- In his first full big-league season, Vinny platooned at short with Freddie Benavides.
- Built a 12-game hitting streak in mid-May, but a May 19 ankle sprain halted his playing time.
- Established a club mark with two triples vs. Florida on April 25, then two nights later he hit his first major-league homer, a solo shot at home off Chicago's Dan Plesac.

1992

- Spent the year at AAA Richmond, hitting safely in 15 of the last 16 games at a .407 clip (24-for-59)...Appeared in nine September games for Atlanta.

1991

- Vinny made three stops, AA Greenville, AAA Richmond and Atlanta, his first major-league appearance (September 1).
- Singled on Oct 6 off Houston's Xavier Hernandez for his first major league hit.

1990

- Atlanta purchased his contract March 19 from Saltillo of the Mexican League...Embarked on his minor-league career at Sumter (A), earning a spot in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game.

Personal

- He and his wife, Samantha, have two sons, Vinicio, Jr. (3/12/96) and Dalton (11-22-00).
- Is a 1985 graduate of Carlos Gracida Institute, he earned baseball MVP honors.

- Has 76 career home runs which rank fifth most in Athletics (1901-2000) history by a player before his 25th birthday behind Jimmie Foxx (174), Jose Canseco (111), Reggie Jackson (105) and Mark McGwire (83)...will not turn 25 until May 4 this year.

2000 Season

- Drove in 100 runs for the first time in his career as he finished the season with 104 RBI.
- Appeared in a career-high 158 games and his 27 home runs fell one short of his best from 1999...the home runs ranked second most by an American League left fielder to Detroit's Bobby Higginson (28).
- The A's were 20-7 in games he homered.
- Had 40 doubles which tied for the third-best single season total in Oakland history behind his club record 41 (1998) which he shares with Jason Giambi (1997).
- Had career highs in strikeouts (130) and grounded into double plays (32)...the double plays set an American League record for left-handed hitters, breaking the mark of 30 set by Carl Yastrzemski with Boston in 1964...also set the Athletics franchise (1901-2000) record, breaking the mark of 30 set by Billy Hitchcock in 1950.
- Was hitting .154 after eight games but ended up with a .281 mark in April.
- Hit his first career grand slam on April 29 at Minnesota (Eddie Guardado) and it was the game winning shot in the A's 6-2, 10-inning win...also tied his career-high five RBI in that game.
- Belted three grand slams on the year: also July 22 vs. Anaheim (Brian Cooper) and September 3 at Seattle (Jose Paniagua)...overall was 7-for-21 with the bases loaded.
- Hit .353 (12/34) against the Devil Rays, his second-highest average against an opponent in 2000 (Baltimore - .383, 18/47).
- Had an eight-game hitting streak from May 2 to 10 which tied his career high.
- Batted clean-up for the first time in his career on May 9 at Anaheim and hit .296 (69 for 233) with 15 home runs and 52 RBI when batting fourth...hit .269 (97 for 361) with 12 home runs and 52 RBI in all other spots in the order.
- Appeared in each of the A's first 57 games before getting the day off on June 6...the day off came after a 1-for-16 stretch to start interleague play.
- Entered the season with a .388 career average in interleague play but was 8-for-61 (.131) against the National League West in 2000.
- Finished May with a .333 batting average, his best mark in a month in 2000, and 11 doubles in 28 games.
- Homered eight times over a 13-game span from June 12 to 27...his eight home runs in June equaled his most ever in a month (August, 1999)...also had 25 RBI in June, his most ever in a month.
- Had an eight-game hitting streak from June 14 to 27 (17 for 44, .386)...also drove in at least one run in every game during that streak (17 total)...had three three-hit games during the streak and had 13 for the season...had just four games of three or more hits in all of 1999.
- Struggled in July as he batted .237, but then hit .297 in August.
- Went 26-for-117 (.222) over his last 32 games which dropped his average to a season-ending .279 ...that was the lowest his average was in 2000 beyond May 2.
- Hit .232 in September, his lowest average in a month in 2000...then went 2-for-17 (.118) in the Division Series against New York.
- Hit 19 of his 27 home runs against left-handed pitchers.

- Average improved to .315 (52 for 165) with runners in scoring position and .338 (25 for 74) with RISP and two outs, from .248 and .184, respectively in 1999.

1999

- Although his averaged tailed off from his Rookie-of-the-Year season in 1998, he did hit a career high 28 home runs and was three RBI short of his total from the previous year with 86.
- The 28 home runs set an Oakland record for a leftfielder.
- Batted .265 which marked a 23 point drop from 1998...that was due to a slow start that saw his average at the .131 mark after his first 33 games (May 19).
- Rebounded to hit .303 (115 for 379) with 25 HR and 75 RBI over his final 115 games.

- Like many of the A's left-handed hitters, left-handed pitching was an early season nemesis...started the year just 1-for-29 against left-handed pitching and was 2-for-42 (.048) at the end of June...then hit .224 (15 for 67) off left handers the rest of the season...hit .156 (17 for 109) against left handers overall and .297 (112 for 377) with 25 of his 28 HR and 73 of his 86 RBI against righthanders.
- Hit .342 in June, his best average ever in a month...had his lone two-homer game of the season on June 23 at Texas.
- Had his first three-hit game of the season on August 2 against Baltimore after going the first 91 games with two hits or fewer.

- His sharp breaking split-finger pitch is chiefly responsible for his 105 career wild pitches- 6th among active pitchers...Still holds the all-time AL record for most wild pitches in one season, 26 in 1993...Only 3 pitchers in major league history have thrown as many in one season: 30-Red Ames, NY Giants, 1905; 27-Tony Cloninger, Atlanta Braves, 1966 and 26-Larry Cheney, Chicago Cubs, 1914...Is tied with Tommy John for most career wild pitches in an American League Championship Series (4) and in one ALCS game (3)-Oct. 5 vs. CWS. He also tied for the AL lead in wild pitches in 1994 and led three of his minor leagues in that category: Gulf Coast League (1985), Florida State League (1986) and the Southern League (1990).

- Is one of four Dominican born pitchers to win an ERA title...Guzman won the AL ERA crown in 1996...The others: Pedro Martinez (NL in 1997 with Montreal; AL in 1999 and 2000 with Boston); Alejandro Pena (NL in 1984 with Los Angeles) and Juan Marichal (NL in 1969 with San Francisco).

His 5 wins are 3rd behind Stewart and John Smoltz (6) and his 2.27 ERA is 9th best (min 30 innings).
- Remains one of four pitchers since 1952 to have had single season streaks of 20 or more unbeaten starts. Guzman did it in 1991...The others: Dave McNally (26 starts in 1969), Roger Clemens (22 in 1998) and Jack Sanford (20 in 1952).
- His 5 starts and 32 innings against the Devil Rays in 1998 are the most by an opponent in one season.

2000 Season

- Began the season in the rotation and made one start, April 7 vs. Cleveland, before heading to the disabled list the next day with right shoulder tendinitis...was transferred to the 60-day June 16 and underwent season-ending surgery June 27 to repair a partially torn rotator cuff and labrum...the procedure was performed by Devil Rays medical director Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala.
- Suffered a 14-5 defeat to Cleveland in his Rays debut (1.2-IP, 7-H, 8-R/ER, 2-BB, 3-SO, 55 pitches)...allowed a solo home run to Jim Thome and a grand slam to Omar Vizquel...was his briefest outing since May 13, 1997 at Detroit while with Toronto.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Robeto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services and made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Al Leiter (2000), Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

X-Ray Report

Ryan became the first Devil Ray draft pick to reach the Major Leagues when he received the call May 3, 1999.

2000 Season

- Split the 2000 season between the Rays and AAA Durham...also had a pair of stints on the disabled list.
- Went 5-6 with a 6.92 ERA in 18 starts for the Rays...was 8-9 with a 4.55 ERA in 24 starts in 1999 when he was voted Rays Most Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay chapter of the BBWAA.
- Season ended Sep 6 @ Cleveland when he left after 3.0 innings (44 pitches) with what was later discovered as a blood clot above the right biceps...was placed on the 60-day DL Sep 11.
- Began the year with the Rays, making his first opening day roster, and made 6 starts (0-4, 9.68) before being optioned to AAA Durham May 4...Rays lost all six of his starts.

- Started his first game with the Bulls May 8 at Scranton Wilkes-Barre and worked 2.0 innings before exiting the game with right biceps tendinitis...went on the DL the next day.
- Was reinstated June 16 and made 4 starts before re-joining the Rays on July 8.
- Made 12 starts for TB in his 2nd tour and went 5-2 with a 5.15 ERA (57.2-IP, 80-H, 33-ER).
- WIN STREAK: Upon returning he won 5 straight games (over 8 starts) from July 17-Aug. 22, tying a club record (Wilson Alvarez July 17-Aug. 29, 1999 and Jim Mecir May 28-July 13, 2000)...over the 8-start stretch he pitched to a 4.60 ERA (45-IP/23-ER)...streak ended with a 3-2 loss @ Baltimore on Aug. 27 (5.0-IP, 8-H, 3-R/ER), his first defeat since May 2 vs. TEX.
- FIRST WIN: July 17 vs. Atlanta, snapped a personal 6-game losing streak with a 9-6 win (IP-5, H-6, R-3, ER-3, BB-3, SO-6)...It was his first win since Aug 31, 1999 at Baltimore and the Rays' only victory ever against the Braves.
- Won his first 3 starts after the All-Star break, beginning with the Atlanta game...he then beat David Cone and the Yankees on July 22, 12-4 (IP-6, H-7, R-2, ER-2, BB-0, SO-2) and won 8-5 at KC July 27 (5.0-IP, 8-H, 3-ER)...was the 2nd time in his career he won 3 consecutive starts (also June 15-26, 1999)...was one shy of the club-record 4 by Rolando Arrojo April 30-May 16, 1998.
- LAST WIN: Aug. 22 at Minn...his best start of the year...worked 7 innings, his most since Sep 5, 1999 (also against the Twins)...surrendered just one run (Ortiz HR) while scattering 4 hits and 2 BB...matched his career high with 8 K's...tossed a season-high 109 pitches
- RARITY: Surrendered 2 grand slams to the same batter in 2000 - KC's Jermaine Dye: April 26 @ Kauffman Stadium and Sep 1 at Tropicana Field (actually surrendered 3 total HR to Dye on the year)...only two other times in AL history (6 in ML history), has a pitcher allowed two slams to the same hitter in the same season - 1953 (Detroit's Ray Boone hit 2 off Tex Shirley of the St. Louis Browns that season) and 1946 (Rudy York, Boston off Bob Cain, St. Louis Browns).
- Walked only 11 batters in his last 52.2 innings (final 10 starts) after walking 20 in his first 38.1 IP (first 8 starts).
- His first start since recall came July 9th @ Florida...lasted just 2.2 (6-H, 4-R/ER, 1-BB, 4-SO), the 3rd shortest outing of his brief major league career...did not record the decision as the Rays tied the game at 4-4 before eventually losing 10-9.
- Pitched effectively in his first start of the season at Minnesota on Apr 4 when he left after 6 innings with a 5-3 lead (IP-6, H-6, R-3, ER-3, BB-1, SO-1), but Rays eventually lost 6-5.
- Lost his next 3 starts by scores of 17-4 (to Cleveland on Apr 9), 10-5 (at Detroit on Apr 14) and 8-4 (at Baltimore on Apr. 20) while allowing 21 hits, 23 runs (20 ER) in only 13.2 innings.
- Following a 6-inning outing at KC, 4/26 (8-H, 6-R/5-ER) he started and lost at home to TEX on May 2, 8-1 (5-IP, 6-H, 4-R/ER)...was optioned to Durham 2 days later.

1999

- Voted team's Most Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay chapter of the BBWAA.
- Twenty-four year old rookie was recalled May 3 from AA Orlando and made 24 starts for the Devil Rays after making only 18 minor league appearances.
- Ranked 3rd in games started among AL rookies, 6th in wins (8-tie) innings pitched (142.1) and strikeouts (97).
- Held righthanders to a .247 average (72/292), 8th best in the AL....overall opponents hit .253 against him, best among any Rays starters.
- Was one victory shy of the team lead (Alvarez-9)...also ranked 2nd on the Rays in innings and ERA among starters.
- He was just the 3rd player to reach the big leagues from the 1998 draft along with DET Jeff Weaver and St.L JD Drew.
- Owned 14 quality starts (min 6-IP, 3-ER or less), 2nd to Alvarez's 15 on the staff.
- Rays were 11-13 in his 24 starts, scoring just 34 runs over the 13 losses (2.6 per).
- Had a stretch of 3 straight victories June 15-26 (21.0-IP, 24-H, 6-R/5-ER, 4-BB, 10-SO - 2.14 ERA).
- Tossed 12 straight scoreless innings from May 17 - May 29, 3rd-best stretch this season on the staff (Alvarez-14, Witt-13).
- Worked a minimum of 7.0 innings in 9 of his two dozen starts.
- Pitched what was possibly the best game in Devil Rays history, at home on May 23 vs. Anaheim (just his 4th ML start)...threw a 9-inning 1-hitter, but didn't get the decision in a game the Rays lost 4-0 in 10 innings..Faced only one batter over the minimum....allowed only a bloop single by Darrin Erstad to lead off the 7th inning and hit one batter...the Angels scored 4 runs off Roberto Hernandez in the 10th to win it.

- Made his big league debut at home on May 5 vs. Kansas City...worked 4.2 innings against the Royals and allowed 4 hits - all home runs (Sweeny-2, Kreuter, Damon)...had a 4-0 lead after 3 innings, but couldn't hold it...left the game with the score tied 5-5...Rays scored 4 in the bottom of the 5th and went on to win 10-6.
- Won his first major league game on May 17 at Texas (start #3)...threw 7.0 innings as the Rays equaled their team record for largest margin of victory with a 13-3 win over the Rangers...after surrendering a 2-run home run to Rusty Greer in the first, he allowed just a run and 2 hits over the next 6 frames before exiting (4-H, 3-R/ER, 3-BB, 4-SO).
- Ranked 3rd in AL with 12 hit batters.
- Made 5 starts for Orlando and went 2-2 with a 2.73 ERA (26.1-IP/8-ER)...both of his wins were combined shutouts: April 13 vs. Huntsville, April 24 vs. Chattanooga.
- Participated in his first ML camp in the spring (non-roster invitee) and registered a win and a 1.53 ERA in 5 appearance (3 starts).

- Upon signing, was assigned to Class A Hudson Valley and allowed just one run over his three starts for the Renegades (0.67 ERA). Struck out 18 in 13.1 innings of work.
- Made his professional debut June 17 against New Jersey, hurling 3.0 scoreless innings, surrendering a hit and a walk, while striking out four in an 8-6 Valley win.
- Moved to Charleston (A) and won six straight decisions before recording his only season loss in his last outing, August 17. Compiled a 1.52 ERA (9 G, 53.1 IP, 75 SO) before that final start.
- Named Devil Rays Organization Pitcher of the Month for July, posting a 3-0 record and 1.29 ERA in six starts. Hurled 35.0 innings, surrendering just 16 hits and four walks, while striking out 36.
- Struck out a season-high 11 batters (7.1 IP, 3 H, 1 R) in a 2-1 win against Macon July 13, retiring the first 18 batters.

X-Ray Report

Pitched the first no-hitter in the Devil Rays history June 28, 1999 for Class A Charleston in a 3-0 win at Columbia in the first game of a doubleheader (7 innings). He retired the final 17 batters he faced after issuing a second-inning walk. He finished with that walk and six strikeouts. One month earlier he was one strike away from a no-hitter before allowing a bloop single.

2000 Season

- Rated number two prospect in the Rays' system by Baseball America behind OF Josh Hamilton.
- Made a career-high 27 starts as he split the campaign between St. Petersburg (A) and Orlando (AA).
- Returned to St. Petersburg to start the year and started 10 games, pitching to a 3.38 ERA, but was just 2-4...allowed three earned runs or less in all but two starts...held opponents to a .214 overall average and a .161 mark with runners in scoring position.
- Fanned a season-high seven in his season debut April 7 at Clearwater, but did not factor in the decision of a 6-2 Clearwater win (5.0-IP, 2-H, 0-ER, 1-BB).
- His first win of the year he tossed 6.0 scoreless innings (2-H) in a 9-5 win at Clearwater April 22.
- Tossed 7.0 shutout innings (2-H, 6-BB, 3-SO) in a combined 8-0 shutout May 8 vs. Brevard County...that outing closed a stetch of four starts, allowing just five earned runs (24.0-IP, 1.88 ERA).
- Promoted to Orlando May 30 and made 17 starts, going 6-8 with a 3.62 ERA while holding opponents to a .237 batting average.

Each screen offers access to the World Wide Web, CNN News and network television programs, movies, scrolls of stock prices and sports scoreboards, an e-mail option, live video and captioning of the game on the field and TV and radio feeds from sports venues around the world. The 2001 Technologies Cyber café operates during games and other Tropicana Field events. Admission to the café and computer is free, on a first-come basis, to those attending the event.

STUDENTS AND RAYS COMBINE ON MAJOR LEAGUE FIRST

On May 6, 1999, the Devil Rays and students from Lakewood High School and Countryside High School in Pinellas County made history. That day, the students handled all of the television production duties of the Rays-Royals game from Tropicana Field. That game was not televised by the Rays' regular TV network, so the students manned the cameras, produced, directed, handled the play-by-play and color commentator duties and conducted pre-game interviews. The game was shown two days later on the Pinellas County Cable station, WPDC-TV Channel 14. To our knowledge, high school students have never done anything like it before or since.

ALL STAR BALLOTING

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted from fans to managers on several occasions. In 1933 and 1934, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for the All-Star through newspaper ads featuring official ballots.

From 1935 to 1946, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star team managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, was returned to the fans from 1947 to 1957. However, a case of ballot stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958 to 1969.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, All-Star Fan Balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside state and national elections.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm diagnosis.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of the knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated by excessive throwing.

WHAT IS A DEVIL RAY?

Tampa Bay was granted a major league franchise on March 9, 1995. During the weeks surrounding that date, more than 7,000 suggested names were submitted by the people of Tampa Bay. Suggestions included such creative choices as Fruit Blossoms, Pteradactyls, Bigfeet, Backcrackers, Snowbirds and Toads.

The largest percentage of those suggestions included the name "Rays," an order of large, graceful fish that live primarily in the tropical waters off Florida's coast.

In a subsequent telephone contest in which more than 70,000 calls were received from Tampa Bay area residents, "Devil Rays" won out over "Manta Rays." Both names are actually used to describe the same fish. Devil Rays are the largest member of the Ray family measuring up to 23 feet long and weighing as much as 2,400 pounds. They are found in Florida waters: the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic Coasts of the southern United States. They are massive, but gentle creatures, harmless to humans. The Devil Ray gets its name from the cephalic fins on the head that look like devil's horns. Although they are quite large, Devil Rays are known to leap from the water and can sail up to 20 feet in the air. Females of the species actually lay their eggs in flight and their offspring are known as "Pup Rays." Devil Rays are virtually impossible to keep in captivity.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY; RAYS WERE 2nd MOST IMPROVED — The Rays went 9-9 in interleague play, as many wins as they had in 1998 (5-11) and 1999 (4-14) combined...With 5 more interleague wins in 2000 than in 1999, the Rays had the 2nd most improved record in interleague play among major league teams behind Anaheim (+6).

RAYS BY MONTH

APRIL — The Rays' 9-15 mark in April was their worst first month...The Rays finished April with 28 home runs, 257 hits and 133 runs - all team records for the first month (the 28 home runs ties 1998 for their most in April), but their 6.15 ERA was their highest ever for one month exceeding their 5.95 in May of 1999.

MAY — The Rays finished 8-19 in May, their worst month in club history...They finished the month with the fewest May wins by an AL team since the 1996 Detroit Tigers went 4-23 in May...Their 16 wins on Memorial Day (May 29) were the fewest by an AL team since those same 1996 Tigers (12-39).

JUNE: RAYS BEST MONTH EVER — The Rays completed the best month in club history with a 15-11 (.577) winning percentage besting their previous mark of 16-12 (. 571) in August of 1999...Rays went 9-5 at home in June, also their best month and most home wins in a month...The Rays' AL-best 3.76 ERA in June is also their best ERA for one month...Rays were led in June by Bobby Smith (.339, 19-56), Fred McGriff (.313, 31-99, HR-6, RBI-21), Bubba Trammell (.313, 20-64) and Steve Cox (.306, 15-49)...Rays ERA leaders for the month were Doug Creek (1.08, IP-16.2, ER-2), Mark Guthrie (2.63, IP-13.2, ER-4), Roberto Hernandez (1.54, IP-11.2, ER-2, SV-6), Jim Mecir (2-0, 1.69, IP-16.0, H-8, ER-13) and Steve Trachsel (3-2, 2.52, IP-35.2, H-29, ER-10)...Rays bullpen for the month: 6-2, ERA-2.29, IP-82.2, ER-21

SEPTEMBER — Was perhaps the most bizarre month in club history...The Rays started the month 2-16 including a 10-game losing streak longest in the AL and 2nd longest in club history. It also included:

- a stretch of 4 games against the Oakland A's in which they were outscored 43-4 (Sep 9-10-11,15);
- a span of 29 games in which they failed to score more than 5 runs - longest such streak in the majors in 20 years;
- a 4-game span in which they didn't draw a walk, longest such streak in the majors in 8 years;
- a home game postponed by weather - (Sep 17) only the 3rd time ever weather has forced the postponement of a game played indoors;
- an 0-5 homestand - matching their worst in club history, Sep 15-20;
- a .230 team batting average, lowest in club history.

And despite all of that, the same month also included some of the brightest moments in franchise history:

- a 30-inning scoreless streak by Rays starting pitchers, longest in the AL in four years;
- a 3-game sweep of the Yankees who failed to clinch the division title in Tampa Bay...Rays outscored them, 24-5;
- the Rays went 8-2 in their last 10 games;
- the Rays went 10-3 vs. AL East teams and all of those games, except the season finale, were games in which the aforementioned teams were still in postseason contention: 3-1 vs. Toronto, 3-0 vs. New York, 4-2 vs. Boston;
- the Rays matched their best-ever homestand going 5-1 against NY and Boston to close out the season;
- to top it off, three of the Rays' instructional league players foiled a bank robbery in St. Petersburg on September 25.

IT WAS BIZARRE WORLD IN 2000

The Rays' 2000 season was full of never-before-seen happenings, or at least a few that had not been seen by this generation of baseball fans. The more bizarre happenings are listed below.

FIRST MAJOR LEAGUE HR... REPEAT... FIRST MAJOR LEAGUER HR — On June 4, the Rays beat the Mets, 15-5...In that game Rays SS Felix Martinez hit his first career HR (2-run shot) in the 2nd inning and pitcher Esteban Yan followed with his first career HR (in his first professional AB) on Bobby Jones's very next pitch...Yan became the 12 pitcher (4th AL) to homer in his first AB (last was CHI-N Jim Bullinger on June 8, 1992) and the 5th pitcher to homer on his first pitch (last was also Bullinger)...Yan and Martinez became the 5th pair of teammates to hit their first major league home runs back-to-back. The others:

April 29, 1901	Detroit	Pop Dillon and Kid Elberfeld
May 5, 1973	Baltimore	Al Bumbry and Rich Coggins
April 18, 1976	Minnesota	Lyman Bostock and Butch Wynegar
April 14, 1985	Montreal	Sal Butera and Bryn Smith

LONGEST DROUGHT IN 20 YEARS — In 29 games between Aug 21 and Sep 23, the Rays failed to score more than 5 runs, the longest such streak since the 1980 San Diego Padres also went 29 games, July 15 through August 19...Beyond that (more than 29) you have to go back to the 1971 Philadelphia Phillies who went 40 games between April 24-June 8.

WEIRDEST NIGHT OF ALL — On August 29 vs. the Red Sox at Tropicana Field, Boston's Pedro Martinez hit the first batter of the game - Gerald Williams - and the retaliations led to the ejections. The Rays had 8 players/coaches ejected and the Red Sox none, believed to be the most lopsided ejection massacre in major league history. The previous high was thought to have taken place on July 9, 1929 when the Cincinnati Reds had 7 players ejected in their game against the NewYork Giants, who had none...Rays Manager Larry Rothschild, and his subsequent successors, bench coach Bill Russell and first base coach Jose Cardenal, were all ejected at various times during the game making the Rays the second team in major league history to use one manager and three acting managers in one game...3B Coach Billy Hatcher finished up...The only other occasion a team has used as many managers in one game was August 12, 1984 when the Atlanta Braves hosted the San Diego Padres. Also fueled by a beanball war, the ejection list in that game grew to 16, including San Diego Manager Dick Williams, and coaches Ozzie Virgil and Jack Kroll.

One other thing about that game, it came very close to becoming the first ever to feature a no-hitter and a cycle. Pedro Martinez came within three outs of a no-hitter and Carl Everett had a double, triple and home run by the 5th inning. Martinez missed the no-hitter when John Flaherty singled to lead off the 9th and Everett did not get the cycle - homering again instead in the 7th and flying out to right in the 9th.

1-0 GAMES — Steve Trachsel won back-to-back 1-0 games: May 6 @ Boston over Pedro Martinez and May 11 @ New York over Orlando Hernandez...In doing so, he became the first American League pitcher to win consecutive 1-0 games since Bert Blyleven, June 21 and 26, 1976 with the Texas Rangers. He became the first pitcher to claim 1-0 victories over the Yankees and Red Sox in the same season since Dean Chance did it with the Angels in 1965. And he became the first pitcher ever to claim 1-0 victories over the Red Sox at Fenway Park and the Yankees at Yankee Stadium in the same season....Finally, when he lost to Al Leiter at Shea Stadium on June 3, he became the first pitcher to win and lose 1-0 games in New York in the same season since Milwaukee's Bill Travers who beat NY's Dock Ellis May 25, 1976 at Yankee Stadium then lost to him there the following month, June 25.

BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK...REPEAT...BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK — On April 21 at Tropicana Field, major league baseball history was made when for the first time ever, three teammates hit home runs in the same inning...twice! Anaheim's Mo Vaughn, Troy Glaus and Tim Salmon all homered in the 4th and 9th innings of Anaheim's 9-6 win over the Rays. It was the 13th time a team has had 3 multi-homer batters in a game, but first time in the same inning.

GRAND SLAM RARITY — On September 1, Rays RH Ryan Rupe allowed a grand slam to KC's Jermaine Dye - the second slam he allowed to Dye in 2000 ...Only two other times in AL history has a pitcher allowed two slams to the same hitter in the same season...The most recent had been in 1953 (Detroit's Ray Boone hit 2 off Tex Shirley of the St.Louis Browns that season). The complete list:

1946-AL	Rudy York, Boston off Bob Cain, St. Louis Browns
1952-NL	Gil Hodges, Brooklyn Dodgers off Jim Hearn, NY Giants
1953-AL	Ray Boone, Detroit off Tex Shirley, St. Louis Browns
1953-NL	Daryl Spencer, NY Giants off Clyde King, Cin Reds
1977-NL	Steve Garvey, LA Dodgers, off Clay Carroll, St.Louis Cards
1999-NL	Fernando Tatis, St.Louis Cards, off Chan Ho Park, LADodgers

HURRICANE GORDON — Due to the weather conditions related to Hurricane Gordon, the Rays-A's game on September 17 was postponed. To our best recollection, it was the 3rd game postponed by weather in a domed stadium. On June 15, 1976 a game between the Houston Astros and Pittsburgh Pirates was postponed when the City of Houston was hit by torrential rains that dropped 10 inches of rain on the city. The playing field itself remained dry, but the rain made transportation nearly impossible...On April 14, 1983 the roof of the Metrodome collapsed under the weight of heavy snow forcing the postponement of that night's game between the Twins and Angels.

AL'S BEST SCORELESS STREAK SINCE 1996 — Between September 23-27, Rays starters pitched 30 consecutive scoreless innings, longest stretch by American League starters since Sep 26, 1995-Apr 2, 1996 when the Baltimore Orioles starters went 42.2 innings

NO FREEBIES — Rays batters went 4 consecutive games (41 innings) without drawing a walk, Sep 7-12...The last time a team went four consecutive games without a walk was the 1992 Kansas City Royals who went Sep 1-4 that year without a free pass.

YOU ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR FIRST — On September 24, Rays 24-year-old rookie RH Travis Harper beat Toronto 6-0 in his 4th big league start (5th over all appearance) becoming the first AL pitcher to record his first major league win via complete-game shutout since California's Tim Fortugno blanked Detroit on July 25, 1992.

OUCH! — The Rays hurlers led the American League in hit batsmen for the 3rd consecutive season

(66 in 2000, 79 in '99 and 81 in '98)...The last AL team to lead the league in HB three consecutive seasons was the Chicago White Sox, 1941-43.

61-PITCH INNING ENDS UNUSUAL STREAK — The Rays went 19 straight games (12-7), May 31-June 20, without allowing more than 5 earned runs in a game...It was tied for the 2nd-longest streak in the majors (Oakland 9/6-9/26) behind a 20-game streak by the Braves, April 13-May 5...The Rays had the streak ended on June 20 when the Mariners scored 7 runs in the 2nd inning (6 earned)...Rays pitchers threw 61 pitches that inning.

COURAGEOUS COMEBACK ENDS — Tony Saunders, who fractured his pitching arm while delivering a pitch to Juan Gonzalez on May 26, 1999 attempted a courageous comeback in 2000. In his 5th rehab start, August 24 pitching for the Rays' Florida State League affiliate in St. Petersburg against the Clearwater Phillies, Saunders broke the arm again in nearly the same location, ending his comeback bid. He was honored prior to the Rays-Yankees game on Sep 27.

FLORIDA POWER WALKWAY

Leading the way through the main parking lot on the east side of the entrance to Tropicana Field is the Florida Power Walkway, the largest ceramic tile mosaic mural in the Southeast and one of the five largest in the country. It is 900 feet long by 30 feet wide and contains 1,849,091 tiles. The mosaic is an impressionistic design of the sun and sea, for which Florida is famous. The design is complete with sand, beach towels, water, fish, sharks, turtles, and devil rays. The walkway also features a sophisticated sound system that plays thematic music and play-by-play descriptions of the game in progress. Theatrical lighting in different shapes and configurations heightens the night-time experience. The sun is artfully depicted in a dramatic, arched, 23-foot high original steel structure that forms the gateway to the stadium.

ON THE CATWALK

There are four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field. They are labeled the "A", "B", "C" and "D" rings with the lowest ring the "D" ring. The "D" ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate. The "C" ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 behind home plate. The "B" ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate. And, the "A" ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate. In three seasons, 27 fair balls have struck the catwalks: 7 off the "B" ring, 15 off the "C" ring and 5 off the "D" ring. The catwalks were hit 13 times in the 2000 season alone. All told, seven Devil Rays have hit a ball off the catwalks: Jose Conseco (3), Fred McGriff (3), Greg Vaughn (2), Vinny Castilla (1), Paul Sorrento (1), Bubba Trammell (1), and Gerald Williams (1). Oakland's Jason Giambi is the only visiting player to hit it twice: back-to-back days, Sep. 12-13, 1999. The five longest Devil Rays' balls to hit the catwalk are marked by a giant baseball with the player's number in the middle. For the ground rules see page 51 of the media guide.

RAYSVISION

"RaysVision" is the entertainment presentation Devil Rays fans experience when they visit Tropicana Field. The RaysVision show, headed by the Event Production Department, is comprised of four distinct elements: video, matrix, audio and live entertainment.

Situated in right field at the Trop is a Mitsubishi Mark IIIHB Diamond Vision screen measuring 24' x 32'. Installed in 1998, this crisp and colorful video display showcases a multitude of in-game entertainment, flashy graphics, music videos, instant replays, interactive quizzes and games, and most importantly, live shots of the fans. Two 9 x 9 Electrosonic video walls in each food court also display the RaysVision video show as well as the game broadcast. In addition to game production, the RaysVision video crew also produces and edits all TBDR television and video projects.

Flanking the RaysVision are two Daktronics monochrome matrix displays, each measuring 16' x 30'. Beyond a simple linescore, these versatile matrix displays present a variety of statistics, updates, messages, graphics, entertaining animations, fan birthdays and special occasions. In 1999 & 2000, the RaysVision matrix show captured the IDEA Golden Matrix Award for Best Overall Matrix Display, beating out the Ohio State University and Madison Square Garden for the top prize. These main matrix displays are supported by 16 out of town scoreboards, 2 lineup displays, 4 tier level auxiliary matrix screens, and a Hi-Tech color matrix display in centerfield street. Additionally, a 3.5' x 37' Daktronics green matrix board appears in center field. Officially named after long-time bay area baseball supporter Jack Lake, this display is specifically dedicated to presenting current and upcoming Rays community relations events and information.

Tropicana Field's sound system is the original speaker system that was installed with the Florida Sun Coast Dome in 1990. It has been supplemented with amplification and distribution equipment since the Devil Rays took over the management of the facility, along with state-of-the-art digital playback equipment. In addition to playing the variety of music, effects and announcements at a Devil Rays game, all Devil Rays promotional radio commercials are recorded and edited in our audio control room.

At every game since the team first took the field on March 31, 1998, Devil Rays fans have been treated to a live performance of the National Anthem(s). In keeping with our community spirit, most of these performances have been by local, homegrown talent...a majority of which are children. The first ever performance of the anthem was delivered by Ms. Belinda Womack, accompanied by a 75 person choir that consisted of members from three churches that were relocated when construction began on The Florida Sun Coast Dome in the late 1980's.

Additionally, our nation's colors are presented at each event by a local honor guard from a variety of groups including the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Coast Guard, College and High School ROTC units, Veteran and Civic Associations, Fire and Police Departments, and, the Boys and Girl Scouts of America.

Finally, and at most every game, many young fans are surprised on the spot and invited to: present the first game ball, deliver the ceremonial first pitch, take part in interactive contests, or even sing "Take Me Out To The Ballgame".

Devil Rays 1999 Season Summary

- The Devil Rays suffered the most injuries in the major leagues in 1999. The Rays put 18 different players on the disabled list (22 total moves to the DL) after Opening Day. That number doesn't include INF Aaron Ledesma who dislocated his left thumb in the final spring training game and was out until May 12, or Randy Winn who was out from Sept 5 to Oct 2 with a sprained right ankle.
- All told, the 22 in-season moves accounted for 863 days on the DL. Fifteen of the Rays' 25-man Opening Day roster spent time on the disabled list including 8 of the 11 pitchers and four of the five pitchers in the club's season-opening rotation. Of the 13 pitchers who started a game for the Rays in 1999, eight spent time on the DL.
- The Rays had five players suffer a season-ending injury: LHP Tony Saunders (arm), RHP Jim Mecir (elbow), OF Quinton McCracken (knee), SS Kevin Stocker (knee) and 3B Wade Boggs (knee). That doesn't include DH Jose Canseco who missed six weeks (July 10 to August 20) after undergoing successful back surgery.
- On May 22, the Rays were 22-20, 2nd best record ever by a 2nd year expansion team, but an injury ridden, 16-day span, May 12-28, left the Rays reeling. During that stretch, Tampa Bay lost three players to season-ending injuries: 1998 MVP Quinton McCracken (knee), starting pitcher Tony Saunders (arm) and bullpen workhorse Jim Mecir (elbow). In addition, 1998 All-Star Rolando Arrojo (shoulder) and another bullpen stalwart, Albie Lopez (oblique muscle), went on the DL during that period.
- In 1999, seven AL teams showed improvement over 1998. The Rays owned the 4th best improvement with a +6 going from 63-99 to 69-93. The Rays were within one game of reaching the 70-win plateau, a peak reached by only 3 of the 14 expansion teams in their first or second seasons (Arizona Diamondbacks, Los Angeles Angels and Montreal Expos).
- The Rays scored 152 more runs in 1999 than in 1998 (620 to 772) - 2nd greatest improvement in the American League behind the Cleveland Indians (850 to 1009). The Rays hit 34 more home runs than the previous year (111 to 145)- 3rd biggest increase in the AL behind Oakland (+86, 149 to 235) and Detroit (+47, 165 to 212). The team batting average was a 13-point increase over 1998 (.261 to .274) - 4th best in the AL... Tampa Bay went from 13th in the AL in batting in 1998 to 9th in 1999.
- In 1999, teammates Jose Canseco and Fred McGriff became the first two players in major league history to hit 30+ home runs with four different teams...Jose had previously done it with Oakland, Toronto and Texas. McGriff has hit 30 or more with Atlanta, Toronto San Diego and the Devil Rays... The two were in the lineup together for a total of only 98 games, or 60% of the Rays games... The Rays were 45-53 (45-47 vs. the AL) when they were in the lineup; 24-40 when they weren't...At the time Canseco suffered his back injury on July 10, he and McGriff were leading the majors in home runs by teammates (50)... Canseco and McGriff had hit 17 home runs out of the DH spot by May 20; Rays DHs hit only 16 in all of 1998.

Wade Boggs delivers career hit #3000 on August 7, 1999.

Devil Rays 1998 Season Summary

Wilson Alvarez throws the first pitch in Rays' history on March 31, 1998

- The Rays finished in the top five in the American League in fielding pct. (2nd) and ERA (4th)...Only one other expansion team has ever finished in the top five in its league in either pitching OR fielding. Arizona finished 3rd in the NL in fielding this season.
- The Rays were the first expansion team ever to go four games over .500 at any point in the season when they were 10-6 on April 19...Among the four major sports (MLB, NFL, NHL, NBA) only two expansion teams reached four games over .500 at any point in their season, both NHL teams in 1967: Philadelphia Flyers (15-9-5) and the Los Angeles Kings (10-6-3).
- The Rays spent a total of 22 days above .500. Only one expansion team had more: 1969 KC Royals with 28.
- The Rays' 12 wins in April were the most ever by a first-year expansion team.
- The Rays won nine straight games against defending AL Division Champs (5-Bal., 2-Cle. and 2-Sea.)
- The Rays became the first expansion team to own winning records in six road parks: Baltimore (5-1), Chicago White Sox (3-2), Detroit (3-2), Anaheim (4-2), Seattle (3-2) and Philadelphia (2-1).
- The Rays became the first expansion team to win season series from five opponents: Baltimore (7-5), Chicago White Sox (6-5), Detroit (6-5), Oakland (6-5) and Philadelphia (2-1).
- The Rays became the first expansion team to sweep a four-game series from a reigning league or division champion in it's own park when they swept a four-game series at Camden Yards, May 15-18.
- The Rays' 94 errors were 2nd fewest in the major leagues behind the Orioles who set a major league record with 81...No other expansion team has made fewer than 100 errors and, in fact, the other 13 expansion teams have averaged 162 errors in their inaugural seasons.
- Despite having 134 games started by pitchers with less than two years of major league experience, the Devil Rays finished 4th in the AL in ERA (4.35)...The Rays became only the 2nd expansion team to finish with an ERA below the league average (4.65)...The only other team to do it was the 1962 Houston Colt .45s...No other expansion team has finished higher than 6th in the league in ERA.

THE ALL-STAR FUTURES GAME

In 1999, Major League Baseball began hosting the All-Star Futures Game in conjunction with the annual Major League All-Star Game. Officials from MLB and Baseball America select two 25-man rosters of the top minor league prospects- one made up of players from the United States, and one of players from other nations. In 1999, the Rays had two players selected: RHP Matt White (IP-0.2) for the U.S. All-Stars and OF Alex Sanchez (1-for-2, R) for the World Team. In 2000, OF Josh Hamilton was named to the U.S. team and went 3-for-4 with three singles. Rays Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Chuck LaMar was on the MLB advisory committee that helped select the 2000 teams.

2000 Tampa Bay Devil Rays Minor League Summary

Triple-A Durham won its third straight International League South Division title, but were defeated by Indianapolis (Milwaukee Brewers) in the semi-finals. The Charleston RiverDogs opened the second half of the season with a 10-game winning streak (June 22-July 2), second longest in the organization's history (Durham won 11 straight, August 7-18, 1998).

Durham was led by International League Rookie-of-the-Year and Devil Rays Minor League Player-of-the-Year 3B Aubrey Huff (.316, 36-2B, 20-HR, 76-RBI, 73 runs). Rays Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Year RHP Jim Magrane went 12-5 with a 2.76 ERA (173.0-IP/53-ER) in 27 starts for Charleston, leading the organization in wins (12) and ERA (2.76). OF Josh Hamilton (.301, 23-2B, 13-HR, 61-RBI, 62 runs) was named USA Today's Minor League Player of the Year and selected as the top prospect in the South Atlantic League by Baseball America.

LHP Joe Kennedy set a Rays organizational record on July 20, striking out 17 batters with Charleston... Hudson Valley RHP Doug Waechter threw the first 9-inning no-hitter in Devil Rays franchise history (2nd overall). Bulls' OF Jose Guillen and St. Petersburg OF Matt Diaz became the second and third Devil Rays, respectively, to hit for the cycle.

The Rays had the 6th pick in the first round of the 2000 June Free Agent Draft and selected OF Rocco Baldelli from Bishop Hendricken High School (Warwick, RI). Baldelli was rated the best high school athlete in the draft by Baseball America and led his high school to four consecutive state titles. Baseball America also listed Baldelli as the fourth-best prospect in the Appalachian League. Since the June Amateur Draft went to 50 rounds (1998), the Rays signed more players this year, 23, than any other, including their first 15 draft choices. Only the St. Louis Cardinals were more successful this season by signing their first 17 draft choices.

Four Rays were selected to play for TEAM USA at the XXVIII Olympiad in Australia in September: 2B Brent Abernathy, RHP Matt White, LHP Bobby Seay and C Pat Borders. Both Abernathy and Borders played key roles in TEAM USA's 4-0 victory over Cuba in the Gold Medal game. GREGORY NASH — OF

Born: 2/16/82 HT: 6-5 WT: 220 B/T: S/R

Birthplace: Baton Rouge, LA Residence: Sorrento, LA

Acquired: Signed as a free agent on 9/13/00 Signing Scout: Benny Latino

- Greg "Toe" Nash originally was "discovered" by Rays' scout Benny Latino as a youth playing Little League in Gonzales, Louisiana, a town with a population of 16,000 off the Mississippi River. Since he did not attend high school his talents were unknown until he later emerged from the cane fields of Gonzales. He played in a league with 30-40 year old men who worked in the cane fields owned by Nash's uncle and former NBA player John "Hot Rod" Williams. Latino was able to witness Nash's raw talent and convinced the Rays to sign him to a contract this past summer. Nash attended the Rays Instructional League in the fall and displayed to the rest of the baseball world his impressive skills. His fiction-like story has caught the eye of the national media with articles written by ESPN.com's Peter Gammons and the USA Today's Rod Beaton.
- Nash received the nickname "Toe" for his size 18 shoe, second largest in the Rays organization to OF Josh Hamilton who has a size 19.

RAYS HAVE EIGHT FIRST ROUND PICKS

The Rays' current 40-man roster has seven first round draft picks and that doesn't include OF Josh Hamilton, the Rays first round pick in 1999 who is in camp as a non-roster player. The others on the 40-man roster: OF Ben Grieve (Oakland, 1994), RHP Paul Wilson (Mets, 1994), INF Damian Rolls (Los Angeles, 1996), RHP Matt White (San Francisco, 1996), LHP Bobby Seay (White Sox, 1996), RHP Jason Standridge (Devil Rays, 1997 and OF Jason Tyner (Mets, 1998).

History of Professional Baseball in Tampa Bay

Although the 1998 Devil Rays played Florida's first regular season major league game outside of Miami, the league's roots in the Tampa Bay Area can be traced back some 88 years. In fact, more major league spring training games have been played in St. Petersburg than in any other city.

Major League Baseball's roots in Tampa Bay can be traced back to 1913 when the Chicago Cubs moved their spring training operation from New Orleans to Tampa. The following year the St. Louis Browns came to St. Petersburg for spring workouts.

Except for the years between 1942 and 1945 when wartime restrictions limited travel for spring training, major league baseball has had a presence in Tampa Bay ever since.

Even during the war years, the area found a way to keep the National Pastime alive. To fill the wartime void, Tampa fashioned the Inter-Social League in 1943. Crowds averaged several thousand in West Tampa and Ybor City to see players that included the fathers of future major leaguers Lou Piniella and Dave Magadan.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the Boston Braves (1922-37), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95); St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18) and the Devil Rays.

Tampa has been the spring home of six major league clubs: Chicago Cubs (1913-16), Cincinnati Reds (1931-42; 1946-87), Boston Red Sox (1919), Detroit Tigers (1930), Washington Senators (1920-29), Chicago White Sox (1954-59) and the New York Yankees (1996-).

St. Petersburg has hosted at least one team for spring training in 81 of the past 87 years and had two teams train there for 63 years. The city has been home to minor league baseball for 63 of the past 81 years beginning with the St. Petersburg Saints in the Florida State League in 1920. The 2001 season will be the city's first without minor league baseball since 1954. Tampa has been a major league spring training site for 75 of the past 88 years and has had minor league baseball for 58 of the past 82 years.

Sixty-nine Hall of Famers have trained in Tampa or St. Petersburg alone, not counting dozens of others who spent springs in Sarasota, Clearwater, Bradenton, and Lakeland.

Plant City, Dunedin, and Tarpon Springs have also been spring training hosts bringing the total number of major league teams who trained in Greater Tampa Bay to 19. All told, those clubs have held a combined total of 523 spring training camps in the area.

In 1910, a former Pittsburgh laundry owner named Al Lang moved to St. Petersburg for his health. He soon became the business manager of a ballpark in St. Pete and focused on two goals: to make better use of the facility and help the sagging tourism industry. The answer was to attract a major league baseball team to St. Petersburg for spring training. So successful was he, that in 1916 and again in 1918, he was elected the mayor of St. Petersburg.

At first, he was rebuffed by the Pittsburgh Pirates whose owner Barney Dreyfuss told him: "Al Lang, you must think I am a damn fool, suggesting I train in a little one-tank town that's not even a dot on the map." Lang did convince the Chicago Cubs to leave New Orleans as their spring training home, but they chose Tampa instead in 1913. A year later he lured the St. Louis Browns, under manager Branch Rickey, to move to St. Petersburg. A baseball committee, formed to attract a major league team to the city, raised $20,000 to buy a large tract of land for a ballpark. The site chosen for the field was Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Petersburg, where a 2,000 seat grandstand was built. Although, the location offered easy access to fishing, swimming and boating, the players did not like the fact that the movie houses in St. Petersburg closed at 9:30 p.m. and the city had only one dance a week. Most distressing was the fact that the city was "dry." Only the Elks club served liquor.

The first game between two major league teams in the area took place in 1914, as the Grapefruit League was established, in which teams played a five-week schedule of exhibition games. On March 26 of that year, at Plant Field on the campus of the University of Tampa, the host Chicago Cubs edged the Browns, 3-2, despite making six errors. The Cubs were fueled early by a first-inning, two-run home run by C. Williams, a blow described as "lucky" the next day by the St. Petersburg Times. Elmer Koestner and Zip Zabel shut out the Browns through eight innings.

The next day, the two teams met at Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Petersburg and the result was the same, a 3-2 Cubs win. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on including many sitting in their automobiles, parked beyond right field. Schools and most offices shut down at mid-day. It later became custom for merchants to close their doors on Monday and Wednesday afternoons to allow employees and customers to attend games.

The Browns vacated St. Petersburg after one year following a dispute over who would pay for the team's expenses. The Philadelphia Phillies replaced them in 1915. After the Phillies moved on three years later, Lang convinced 20 local residents to each contribute $1,000 to build a new ballpark, Waterfront Park, a little north of today's Al Lang Field, built in 1947 in honor of the great baseball promoter.

After a three-year absence, baseball returned in 1922 in the form of the Boston Braves. The Yankees followed in 1925. It probably was not a coincidence that Yankees Manager Miller Huggins had recently purchased a home in St. Petersburg.

It is said that the fact that the Yankees stayed at the Don CeSar Hotel on St. Petersburg Beach in the early 1930s saved the hotel from financial ruin. With players, club officials and media, the Yankees occupied some 125 rooms and filled the hotel restaurant where the players enjoyed steak and unlimited amounts of milk.

With the Yankees came Babe Ruth and his flamboyant lifestyle. On the train ride home from their first spring training in St. Petersburg, Ruth collapsed reportedly from overindulging his large appetite for food and drink. The "stomachache heard around the world" caused him to miss the first month of the regular season. He was subsequently suspended in August of that season for poor performance.

On April 4, 1919 while Ruth was in Tampa for spring training with the Boston Red Sox, he hit what many consider his longest home run, a 587-foot blast against the New York Giants at Plant Field. The feat is commemorated on a plaque at the field.

In 1928, the spring after Ruth's record setting season, 270,000 fans saw Yankees' spring games in St. Petersburg. As a result, Yankee owner Jacob Ruppert cleared a $60,000 profit before heading north.

While with the Yankees on the first day of spring training in 1925 at the team's headquarters at Crescent Lake Field, Ruth gave up shagging balls in rightfield because several alligators had emerged from the lake which bordered the outfield. The park is today known as Huggins-Stengel Field, in honor of former Yankee managers Miller Huggins and Casey Stengel. That field was the first ever used by the expansion New York Mets, who took the field there for the first time in 1962, replacing the Yankees, who ended a 35-year relationship with the St. Petersburg the year before. The Devil Rays held their first minor league spring training camp at the same field.

When the Boston Braves left for Bradenton in 1937, the St. Louis Cardinals came to St. Petersburg the following year and would stay 57 of the next 60, missing only the war years. Only the Detroit Tigers, who have trained in Lakeland for 63 years, have ever had a longer association with a spring training home.

The Cardinals left St. Petersburg in 1997 for a new home in Jupiter, Florida, a facility they share with the Montreal Expos. Upon the Cardinals' exit, the Devil Rays pledged they would carry the torch in St. Petersburg thus becoming the first modern day team to conduct spring training in its home city.

Three minor leagues have had affiliates in the Tampa Bay Area: the Florida State League (1919-), the Florida International League (1946-54) and the Southeastern League (1928-30). The area is also home to the Gulf Coast Rookie League.

Minor league baseball began in Tampa Bay in 1919, when Tampa became a charter member of the Class D Florida State League. After finishing dead last the first year, Tampa went 89-28 in 1920, a .745 winning percentage, still the best in FSL history. It was that year that the St. Petersburg Saints entered the FSL. By 1922, the Saints had won a FSL crown of their own, the first of eight they would win, most in league history. Included in that impressive list is the championship won in 1958 when St. Petersburg became the only FSL ever to win 100 games. St. Pete set a FSL attendance record in 1989 when they drew 202,383 as a St. Louis Cardinals' affiliate. Among Tampa's six first place FSL finishes, was the title earned by the 1961 team led by Reds farmhand Pete Rose who set a still existing FSL mark with 30 triples that year.

The teams from St. Petersburg and Tampa alone have played more than 13,000 minor league games. Add Dunedin, Clearwater and Lakeland and the number soars to 21,000.

Another professional league had a presence in Tampa Bay albeit briefly. The Senior Professional Baseball Association, a league of former major leaguers who were at least 35 years of age or older, sprang up for one season, 1989-90. The St. Pete Pelicans were the first and only league champions.

The prolonged absence of a permanent major league team in this area was not for a lack of effort. Tampa Bay actively pursued major league baseball through expansion and made numerous attempts to lure an existing franchise.

That dogged pursuit lasted some 19 years. Along the way, it appeared a number of teams were headed for Tampa Bay: the Minnesota Twins (1983), Oakland A's (1985), Chicago White Sox (1988), Texas Rangers (1988), Seattle Mariners (1991) and San Francisco Giants (1992) all seemed destined to move to the area. None did. In 1988, local lawmakers approved the use of public funds for a 43,000 seat stadium with the intent of attracting a baseball team. In 1990, the Florida Suncoast Dome was completed and some 20,000 fans pledged $50 for season tickets. The next year, however, Major League Baseball instead expanded to Miami and Denver.

Still not defeated, Tampa Bay officials kept the area in the forefront and on March 9, 1995 the dream became reality. On that date, Vincent J. Naimoli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Anchor Industries International, headquartered in Tampa, and his entirely local ownership group were awarded an expansion franchise for Tampa Bay. The announcement came at the owner's meetings in West Palm Beach Florida. The vote among league owners was 28-0 to admit the Devil Rays and the Arizona Diamondbacks as the 13th and 14th expansion teams in major league history. The reaction in the Tampa Bay area was one of pure ecstasy as the emotions of nearly two decades of disappointment were swept away.

The Tampa Bay area has produced a multitude of major leaguers including Al Lopez, the only Tampa Bay native in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, Wade Boggs, Lou Piniella, Tony LaRussa, Dwight Gooden, Gary Sheffield, Fred McGriff, Tino Martinez, Howard Johnson, Dave Magadan, Luis Gonzalez and Brad Radke.

Devil Rays First Win – April 1, 1998

St. Petersburg, FL— April First, but it was no joke, the Devil Rays won their first game, in game #2 of the season opening series, the Rays rallied from a 3-0, first inning deficit and banged out 18 hits – still their high for a 9-inning game – on their way to an 11-8 victory. Rookie Rolando Arrojo earned the win in his major league debut and Fred McGriff had three run scoring hits including a 2-run single in the Rays' decisive 4-run 8th inning. The Rays batted around in the 4th and 8th innings (they batted around 4 times in the 3-game series). Two-out, RBI singles by Wade Boggs and McGriff were the big hits in the 4th inning in which the Rays entered trailing 3-2. The Rays got a hit in every inning except the 5th.

Rays on TV

Dewayne Staats

Dewayne Staats is entering his silver-anniversary season broadcasting major league baseball and his fourth with the Devil Rays. Before joining the Rays, he spent three years calling play-by-play for ESPN in a variety of sports, including major league baseball and NCAA baseball, basketball and football. He began his major league play-by-play career as the radio and TV voice of the Houston Astros from 1977-84, then called radio and TV action for the Chicago Cubs from 1985-89. He was the lead play-by-play announcer for the New York Yankees games carried by the MSG-TV network from 1990-94, and spent the 1994 and 1995 seasons calling the action for The Baseball Network (ABC/NBC). Staats began his career as a sports reporter for WSIE Radio while a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and began his baseball career as the radio voice of the Oklahoma City 89ers (1973-74). A 1975 graduate of SIU-Edwardsville, Dewayne earned Distinguished Alumnus-of-the-Year honors in 1987. He and his wife, Demetra (Dee), have two daughters, Stephanie (1-11-78) and Alexandra (1-11-84).

Joe Magrane

Joe Magrane returns as television color analyst for the Rays in 2001, his fourth with the club. Last September, Joe served as color analyst for NBC's Olympic baseball coverage in Sydney, Australia. Before coming to the Rays, the 10-year major league veteran worked as an analyst on regional ESPN major league games in 1997 and worked with Devil Rays play-by-play man Dewayne Staats on ESPN's coverage of the College World Series. An All-America selection at the University of Arizona in 1985, Magrane compiled a 56-67 major league record with the St. Louis Cardinals (1987-93), California Angels (1993-95), and Chicago White Sox (1996). He finished third in the 1987 N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year voting, helping lead the Cardinals to the World Series. He won the ERA title in 1988 while with the Cards (2.18) and the following year won 18 games, placing third in the N.L. Cy Young voting. His nephew, Jim, was Rays minor league pitcher of the year last season at Class A Charleston. He and his wife, Renee, have two daughters, Shannon and Sophia.

Todd Kalas

Todd enters his fourth season broadcasting with the Rays and ninth in the major leagues. Kalas hosts the Rays television pre-game show, "Devil Rays on Deck," seen on Fox Sports Net. In addition, Kalas has filled in with play-by-play on both the Rays' television and radio networks. Last season, he teamed with Dewayne Staats on five telecasts, subbing for Joe Magrane, who was broadcasting Olympic baseball coverage for NBC. Prior to joining the Rays, Kalas worked on the radio broadcast team of the New York Mets (1992-1993) and the television broadcast team of the Philadelphia Phillies (1994-1996). After graduating with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University in 1987, he announced University of Delaware football and basketball games. In 1989, he moved to the Tampa Bay area as sports director at Vision Cable in Clearwater before beginning his career in baseball with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991.

In the off-season, he does freelance work for Fox Sports Net, ESPN and ESPN2. Todd is the son of longtime Phillies broadcaster, Harry Kalas.

Kalas is single and resides in Largo, Fla.

Rays on Radio

Paul Olden

Paul Olden, a 13-year major league baseball broadcasting veteran, returns to the Devil Rays' radio team in 2001. Named to the post on September 23, 1997, Olden came to Tampa Bay after calling college football play-by-play for Fox Sports Net in '97. From 1994-96, he was the play-by-play voice of the New York Yankees on WPIX-TV, including the Yankees' World Championship season of 1996. He earned his first big-league job as the play-by-play voice of the Cleveland Indians from 1988-89, then served in the same capacity for the California Angels in 1991, replacing Joe Torre. He also called regional games on ESPN in 1991 and 1992. He served as the play-by-play voice of the NFL's Los Angeles Rams (1991-92) and New York Jets (1993-96), as well as the UCLA Bruins 1990 (football). Paul earned a New York Emmy Award for best local sports coverage in 1993, and for the last eight years, he has served as the public address announcer at the Super Bowl, including this year's game in Tampa. Olden was born in Chicago and grew up in Los Angeles listening to legendary broadcasters such as Vin Scully, Chick Hearn, and Dick Enberg. As a kid, he often took a tape recorder with him to Dodger Stadium and practiced his play-by-play skills. Paul's hobbies include photography, collecting clocks and lighthouse memorabilia, and during this past off-season, he took up the guitar. Olden is single and lives in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Charlie Slowes

Charlie Slowes joins Paul Olden in returning as the first play-by-play team in Devil Rays history. Prior to joining the Rays, Slowes spent 11 years calling the play-by-play action for the Washington Bullets. He spent parts or all of four NBA off-seasons as the television and radio voice of the Tidewater Tides (1986, 1988, 1991, 1992) of the AAA International League. He also hosted the Baltimore Orioles' pregame television show in 1994, and worked as a frequent substitute announcer for the New York Mets and Baltimore Orioles. Slowes gained network experience by calling a regional broadcast of the NBC Sports Game of the Week in 1989 and by calling play-by-play on the CBS Radio Game of the Week in 1985. From 1984-86, he hosted a variety of sports programs at KMOX Radio in St. Louis, including the 1985 National League Championship Series and World Series pre-game shows. He graduated from Fordham University with a degree in communications in 1983. Charlie and his wife, Christina, have two boys, Jimmy (4-6-94) and Alex (10-11-97) and reside in Palm Harbor, Fla.

DIRT BASEPATHS

Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature Astroturf and dirt base paths. Only four other all-Astroturf stadia have ever featured dirt base paths: Astrodome (1966-71); San Francisco's Candlestick in 1971, Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s and the most recent, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76). Chicago's Comiskey Park had dirt basepaths with an Astroturf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s

Rays in Spanish
760-AM La Mera Mera

For the third straight season, the Tampa Bay Devil Rays will broadcast their entire schedule in spanish, representing the most extensive broadcasting commitment ever between the Hispanic community and a professional sports team in Tampa Bay. Calling the play-by-play action on 760-AM La Mera Mera will be Ricardo Taveras and Enrique Oliu.

Ricardo Taveras

Taveras, 35, returns his second season calling the play-by-play action on the Rays spanish broadcast. The Dominican-born Tavares has 16 years of radio experience. He spent two years as a sports commentator for the major leagues in the Dominican Republic and was Program Director for HIVG 870-AM and HIVP 970-AM in the DR from 1990-92. Following that he served as Assistant Program Director for WRIV in Providence, Rhode Island for three years. Most recently, was a host on 760-AM La Mera Mera in Tampa. A baseball player growing up, Taveras participated in the Los Angeles Dodgers' spring training in 1983 but had to leave camp due to an arm injury. He and wife, Josie, have lived in the Tampa Bay area since July '99.

Enrique Oliu

Oliu, 39, returns for his third season as color analyst. Born in Nicaragua, Oliu came to the United States at age 10 and attended the St. Augustine School for the Blind. He called his first professional action in 1989 for the Jacksonville Expos, then served as color commentator for the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball League. Prior to that he was the public address announcer seven years for Florida College Baseball in Tampa. He has hosted his own show on WQBN 1300-AM and has appeared as a guest on baseball broadcasts and talk shows in Managua, Nicaragua. Oliu owns a communications degree from University of South Florida. He married former Air Force sargeant Debbie Perry on October 11, 2000.

DEVIL RAYS FIRST TO TRAIN AT HOME IN MODERN ERA

The Devil Rays' major league spring training home is Florida Power Park, Home of Al Lang Field, in St. Petersburg, making the Tampa Bay franchise the first major league team to train in its home city since 1919 when the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics both trained at home. Between 1943-45, the "War Years," travel restrictions forced teams to alter their routine of heading to warmer weather and some teams trained close to home. Six teams stayed within 100 miles of their home city: Boston Red Sox trained in nearby Medford, 1943-45; Washington Senators trained in a Washington suburb, College Park, MD, 1943-45; Philadelphia Phillies (1944-45) and Athletics (1943) each trained in Wilmington, DE, just 30 miles away; New York Yankees spent 1943 training at the home of Bruce Springsteen, Asbury Park, NJ, some 70 miles from the Big Apple; New York Giants were in Lakewood, NJ, 90 miles away, 1943-45; and the Phillies trained in Hershey, PA in 1943, approximately 100 miles from home.

Raysball Online
Rays Big League Internet Experience

The power of the Internet can be downright stupefying in its ability to make any kind of information available to the whole world. During the 2000 regular season the Rays developed a web site Wednesday ticket special that involved printing a ticket discount coupon from the site to be redeemed at the box office. The coupon was made available at noon on the site the Monday before that Wednesday's home game. Truth be told, we were late with the coupon on a couple of occasions and, as a result, the calls from all across the country would start – from Texas, from Washington state, to name but a few recalled messages. "Where is the coupon?" they wanted to know. It just goes to show you that the Internet and devilrays.com is wherever you happen to be.

The Tampa Bay Devil Rays have had a presence on the Internet at least since the Fall and Winter of 1999. Since that time the Devil Rays web site has gone through a number of incarnations both in the way the site looks and functions and in its management. In 1999 the Devil Rays entered into an agreement with a web design and hosting company then called American Cities Studios. ACS specialized in producing sports and sports-related sites. For the better part of a year ACS managed the Devil Rays site from Baltimore, MD. The Rays front office staff would contact ACS when they wanted new content on their site.

In December 2000, ACS (now ACSsports.com), with the encouragement of the Devil Rays, installed an on-site webmaster who would, thereafter, manage the site from within the walls of Tropicana Field. At the same time devilrays.com went through its first whole sale design revision. In short, the site was redesigned from the ground up and content began to be implemented from within the Rays organization itself rather than from Baltimore. The Devil Rays believed then, and still believe that Internet fans of the Devil Rays are due the most immediate, the most accurate and the most comprehensive information possible from the team's own Internet site.

But so much for history.

Early on at an owner's meeting during the 2000 season all clubs agreed to form an Internet partnership that would embrace all club sites under the umbrella of a wholly new venture, an initiative of Major League Baseball that would come to take the name Major League Baseball Advanced Media, or MLBAM. And so it has come to pass. In the space of one short year, under the auspices of MLBAM, all 30 clubs and mlb.com have launched a new, improved web site. MLBAM's intention is to offer all baseball fans a better web experience with richer and faster content and extensive new features and functionality. With the full authority of MLB behind it, MLB Advanced Media is charged with overseeing all aspects of MLB's Internet and interactive media business interests, including mlb.com and all club sites – including devilrays.com.

The Devil Rays' new web site launched on February 9, 2001, still managed locally from Tropicana Field, under the guidance of Eric Helmer (with the Rays as webmaster since December 1999) as the new site's editor and Damon Young, formerly with media relations at the San Francisco Giants, the site's assistant editor.

On the new devilrays.com fans will find a whole host of new and interactive features. Besides the timely content they have come to expect, fans will find extensive "as it happens" gameday coverage and game view replays, pitch-by-pitch video highlights, game notes and play-by-play. And devilrays.com will be the only place fans will find official Devil Rays statistics. Both casual and avid fans will be able to chart hitting, player, team and league batting/fielding/pitching stats. They will be able to compare and contrast player performance using charts and dynamic graphic visualization. Live chats with players and senior front office staff will take place on a regular schedule. The online merchandise store will offer the widest selection of authentic club merchandise and will sport an enhanced ecommerce interface.

And these are only a few of the new site functions. In development are more robust enhancements and these will come on line as the months progress. The new Devil Rays website underscores the club's and MLB's shared commitment to offer fans the most entertaining and informative way to access the big league experience online.

Tropicana Field:
The Ballpark Of The 21st Century

Tropicana Field, home of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, closed its doors in October 1996 for a 17-month, $85 million facelift that transformed the facility from functional to intriguingly innovative, incorporating baseball traditions throughout the dining, shopping and entertainment complex while adding 319,000 square feet of space.

Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome and then the ThunderDome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities found nowhere else in the major leagues.

- Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and all-dirt base paths. It features the new natural look FieldTurf (see below). All of the other five major league parks that currently feature artificial turf have only dirt cutouts around the bases and at the pitcher's mound. Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966–1971); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971; Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s; and, most recently, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970–1976). Chicago's Comiskey Park had all-dirt base paths with an artificial turf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.
- Tropicana Field became the first major league baseball facility to install FieldTurf. In March 2000, the revolutionary new synthetic grass, FieldTurf was installed at Tropicana Field and on April 7 the first professional baseball game was played on the new surface when the Rays hosted the Cleveland Indians in their home opener. FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from used NIKE athletic shoes. The infill surrounds each FieldTurf fibre like natural earth holds a blade of grass and provides a non-compactible, resilient, natural earth feel. Tropicana Field remains the only professional baseball stadium with FieldTurf, which can be also found at the University of Washington's Stadium (where the Seattle Seahawks played in 2000), the University of Nebraska's football stadium, the Cleveland Browns' practice facility and the Pittsburgh Steelers' practice facility. For more information: www.fieldturf.com
- In keeping with baseball's traditions, the bullpens were relocated after the 1998 season to the field, giving fans a clear view of activity before and during games. The Devil Rays bullpen is located along the right field line, while the visitors bullpen is located along the left field line.
- Seats behind the backstop are the closest in the major leagues—a mere 50 feet from home plate. (St. Louis' Busch Stadium is thought to be the same distance.)
- Of the 319,000 square feet that was added to the facility—including new and wider concourses—it is the area known as Center Field Street that commands the most attention. This bustling area, open year round, features the Cuesta-Rey Cigar Bar, baseball's first in-stadium cigar bar, as well as the Batter's Eye Restaurant, located, appropriately, in the "batter's eye" in center field. The specially tinted windows of the restaurant make up a 130-foot-wide hitting background, yet still allow patrons of the restaurant to watch the game. Also found on Center Field Street are the 2001 Technologies Cyber Café, the Jack Daniel's Billiards Hall, the Budweiser Brew House with its adjoining family entertainment center, merchandise outlets, a bank, a travel agency, the Mountain Dew rock climbing wall, a kid-sized concession stand with kid-sized prices, and a food court known as the Taste of Tampa Bay, which features cuisine from some of the area's most popular restaurants.

- Among the most popular deals in the stadium are the Southwest Airlines Freedom Fan Fare seats in right and left field. All are available at $4 per game (children and senior citizens are $2) and most offer the comfort of actual airplane seats.
- The Hall of Fame Lounge is located on the mezzanine level behind home plate and is open to fans with Home Plate Box, Field Box, Lower Club Box, Diamond Club or suite tickets. Fans can enjoy a beverage and a premium cigar.
- The Tropicana Room is the most versatile venue in the stadium, featuring a buffet with carved meats, pastas, salads and more at evening games and brunch at afternoon games. It is located on the mezzanine level behind home plate and available on game days to fans with a Home Plate Box, Field Box, Lower Club Box, Diamond Club or suite tickets.

- The Rays Bullpen Cafe is located directly behind the Rays bullpen in the right field corner. This section offers picnic-style seating and in-seat wait service.
- The 2001 Technologies Cyber Café offers food, drink and 12 high-quality computer stations for business, personal communications, web-surfing and baseball watching.
- On the expanded concourses are nearly 290 points of sale, believed to be among the most in Major League Baseball. Eight escalators and seven elevators provide fans with easy access between levels.
- Ebbets Field was an influence for Tropicana Field in two ways—one by coincidence, the other by design. Tropicana Field's asymmetrical outfield dimensions closely follow those of the Brooklyn Dodgers' old home, a fact that became evident only after those measurements had been determined. Conversely, Tropicana Field's grand, eight-story-high rotunda entrance is designed from the very blueprints used for the rotunda at Ebbets Field, built in 1913.
- Fans can enter the rotunda by following a 900-foot, tropical-theme, ceramic mosaic walkway. Called SunSations, The Florida Power Walkway is the largest outdoor ceramic mural in Florida and one of the five largest in the United States, made with 1,849,091 brightly colored 1x1-inch tiles, it depicts the sun, sea and beach. A sound system delivers replays of great moments in baseball, play-by-play of Devil Ray games, and music accompanied by synchronized theatrical lighting that casts different shapes and configurations along the way.
- The roof of the dome is lit orange after the Devil Rays win at home, symbolic of the ballpark's title sponsor, Tropicana Dole Beverages.
- Tropicana Field features the world's second-largest cable-supported domed roof (Georgia Dome is the largest). It's made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and it virtually supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. Tropicana Field's roof is slanted at a 6.5 degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced the overall construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet. Accordingly, that reduced the amount of air that requires climate control treatment. It is built to withstand wind of up to 115 miles per hour.

Tropicana Field History

The original Florida Suncoast Dome was opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the area's National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct. 4, 1996, in accordance with a naming rights agreement between the Devil Rays and Tropicana Dole Beverages North America, located in Bradenton.

Though originally built for baseball, there have been 16 other sports and competitions presented in the facility. These include hockey, basketball, football, sprint car racing, gymnastics, soccer, tennis, weightlifting, ping pong, karate, motorcycle racing, equestrian events, track and figure skating.

The facility has set attendance records in a number of sports. During their three seasons playing in the building, the Lightning established the top 20 attendance marks in NHL history. On April 23, 1996, a crowd of 28,183 attended Game Four of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals between the Lightning and the Philadelphia Flyers—the largest single-game attendance figure in NHL history.

The Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm set all its records while playing in the facility, including the largest single-game record of 28,746. In 1990, Davis Cup tennis was played at the dome, with a record crowd of 53,150 attending the three-day event. Also in 1990, 25,710 NBA fans saw the Chicago Bulls play an exhibition game against the Seattle Supersonics in what was then the largest crowd ever to attend a basketball game in the state of Florida. That figure was surpassed first by the 26,102 who attended the 1994 first-round NCAA Regionals, then again on March 20 and 22, 1998, when sellout crowds of 40,589—a record for a non-Final Four game— watched the NCAA Regional and semifinal games featuring Syracuse, UCLA, Duke and Kentucky. The 1999 Final Four, featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut, drew capacity crowds of 40,632 and 39,113 on March 27 and 29. The largest crowd to date—47,150—appeared at the Aug. 11, 1990, concert featuring The New Kids on the Block.

FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from used NIKE athletic shoes. It took 500 tons of clay shipped in from Tennessee to build the base paths. Called "Mar Mix," the infield dirt is a carefully blended mixture of 54 percent sand, 32 percent clay and 14 percent silt. Another type of clay, Blue Gumbo, is used for the pitcher's mound and batter's box.
